

LONDON PAPERS REGRET THAT THE U. S. DID NOT ALSO RATIFY TREATY

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Jan. 12.—Regret that the United States did not participate in ratification of the treaty of Versailles is expressed by today's newspapers.

"The omission of America's signature to the ratifying document," says the Telegraph, "stands for the bitter disappointment of the hope that glowed with promise for humanity a year ago."

"There is not a nation which cannot, if it wishes, manufacture new grievances out of the settlement to trouble the peace of the world," it says.

"The news notes that America 'which did so much to make peace,' had no part in the final act."

"So far there is cause for rejoicing; the supreme and overwhelming need of Europe is for peace."

ARMSTRONG MILL EMPLOYEES SHARE IN PROFITS

More Than $40,000 Paid Out Saturday to Operatives of Seven Gaston County Mills in Armstrong Chain — Not a Bonus But Share of Profits.

Saturday was a busy day with many Gaston county banks. Every day, for that matter, is a busy one, but Saturday was unusually busy, because of the fact that every employee of the Armstrong chain of mills in Gaston county was cashing a check, a check which represented to him just so much "net" over and above his regular yearly earnings.

This policy on the part of the Armstrong mills is but in line with the far-reaching vision of the management in its efforts to have their employees share in the unusual prosperity enjoyed by the textile industry in this county.
