Mr. Meek Smith has found that the Please-U theater, owned and operated by him, is too small for his large patronage, and has therefore enlarged the room and made other improvements necessary to take care of his growing business.

The Dixie Theater, a moving picture show for negroes, owned by Messrs. Thad Clinton, Fred Jackson and Clyde Edmund Ford, opened last Friday night with a large attendance.

Dr. E. W. Pressley, formerly of Clover and a leading physician of South Carolina, who moved to Greenville, S. C., last summer, and has held the position of diagnostician at Steedley's Hospital at Chick Springs, has been thinking of opening a private office in Greenville for consultation, but has abandoned the idea since Dr. Steedley has given him a substantial increase in salary and an assistant in his work.

PUBLIC SAFETY ASSOCIATION MET IN RALEIGH.

The recently organized Municipal Public Safety Association of North Carolina, which held its meetings at Raleigh last Monday and Tuesday, made a good beginning, as all of the subjects brought up for discussion are of importance to every city in this State. One of the subjects was a uniform traffic law for the entire State, a committee was appointed to draft a code to be presented at the next meeting of the association.

A very comprehensive card system of registration of automobiles, giving a detailed description of each automobile in the State, showing the owner's name, description of, and the number of the motor and serial number of the car.

Tuesday afternoon's session was taken up in the discussion of the State Juvenile Law, and to devise some method by which the juvenile delinquents who are brought before the City Courts can be placed in the proper training schools of the State, as it is well-nigh impossible to find lodgment for them in any of the training schools in North Carolina, consequently they are released upon probation and in most cases are again haled into court for the same offense. Fire prevention, police and fire problems were discussed.

Those present were commissioners of Public Safety, A. H. Mooneyham of Raleigh, D. Hiden Ramsey of Winston-Salem, J. W. Donovan of Greensboro, R. L. Fitzpatrick of Asheville; City Managers, W. J. Alexander, of Gastonia, Dr. I. Cashelle, of Goldsboro and Mayor John Underwood of Fayetteville.

The session was addressed by Col. James R. Young, State Insurance Commissioners, on the subject of Fire Prevention and Fire Causes, and by Col. J. Bryan Grimes, secretary of State, on the automobile laws and their enforcement.

Permanent officers were elected as follows:

A. H. Mooneyham, president, Raleigh; D. Hiden Ramsey, secretary and treasurer, Winston-Salem.

Better Table Necessities For Less Money at

PIGGLY WIGGLY stores place before the public a complete assortment of food products, over 1000 items at prices lower than elsewhere.

All goods within easy reach. Save time by helping yourself. Save money by paying for food only — not for store upkeep.

PIGGLY WIGGLY does sell day in and day out at lower prices than you can find elsewhere for the reasons that a National standard governs the operation of each PIGGLY WIGGLY store and the store system which is a part of the standard is so regulated that a sales volume per store has been developed that is two and one-half times the average of the largest per store sales volume of any other chain store organization, and the store operating cost in producing this volume is less than 5 per cent on sales, which is about one-half similar cost of operating the best managed chain stores, and about one-third the cost of the smaller organizations of chain stores, and about one-fourth the cost of the ordinary retail corner grocery.

Such a store system can save to the consumer an average of about $20 on every $100 purchased from PIGGLY WIGGLY when compared with the purchases made of the regular type corner grocery.

The PIGGLY WIGGLY system is the most economical, the most efficient, and the cleanest method of food distribution ever devised

NORMA TALMADGE LIES AND LOVES IN 'SHE LOVES AND LIES'

Does a woman lie when she loves? She certainly does, and Norma Talmadge proves it in "She Loves and Lies," a select special in which the popular star is appearing at the Gastonian theater Tuesday.

True, Miss Talmadge has a good excuse for her fibs, for she must win a fortune and in order to do this she must marry a man, while she is masquerading as a woman of fifty-two, who happens to be the man she really loves and he really believes she is the age she represents.

Some task, but Miss Talmadge is so versatile that she not only makes the aged woman convincingly lovely, but compels her youthful husband to become so wrapped up in her that when he has a chance to escape what to some would prove a distasteful marriage, he will not let her go.

Then comes the surprise when the young man finds out that his bride is a girl full of the buoyancy of youth and the joy of living.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.
