What Is Our Most Valuable Possession?

The most valuable possession in the world today cannot be bought with money. Its price is above rubies and diamonds and yet many who possess it carelessly squander it or throw it lightly away.

"What is this talisman?" you ask. It is health. After it is gone, even though you were as rich as Croesus you could wander over the earth in search of this lost treasure bring no pleasure to its possessor. These law-breakers, if they survive, must all pay the price of their disobedience in shortened lives, pain and suffering.

"Nor wealth, nor honor, pomp nor power, can give the heart one happy hour, if health is gone. Be oftentimes wise, with health, all thought of pleasure flies."
