'Fritter' Away Those Pleasant Moments

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

NOW is the time for spring parties. It's also the season for fragrant, fresh pineapple. You'll welcome this unusual recipe for fresh pineapple-and-cheese fritters. Serve these delicious morsels on food picks, along with tall, cool drinks or fruit juices.

Fresh Pineapple Cocktail Fritters (Approximately 40-50 balls)

One cup sifted, all-purpose flour; 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg, 1/4 teaspoon ground, black pepper; 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1 egg, slightly beaten; 3/4 cup milk, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, melted; 1 cup 1/2-inch fresh pineapple cubes, 2 teaspoons sugar, soy sauce, 1/4 pound mild-flavored Cheddar cheese (optional).

Sift together first 6 ingredients. Stir in lemon rind. Combine egg and milk, and stir into flour mixture along with melted butter or margarine.

Cut pineapple into 1/2-inch pieces; mix with sugar and dip in soy sauce. (Be sure to dry each piece with a paper towel.)

Cut cheese into 1/2-inch pieces, if used, and place on top of each pineapple wedge.

Dip in the batter and fry until brown in deep, hot fat (365 degrees F. on deep-fat thermometer), or hot enough to brown a cube of day-old bread in 40 seconds.

Quickly remove from fat and drain on absorbent paper. Insert toothpicks and serve on hors d'oeuvre tray.

Fresh Apple Fritters: Pare and core apples. Cut into 1/2-inch cubes. Prepare and fry in deep, hot fat as for pineapple in the above recipe.

For a special luncheon or an outdoor grill party, this delicious mixed grill will please everyone. The use of herbs gives the food a magically wonderful flavor.

Mixed Grill With Herbs (Serves 6)

Mrs. Blizzard Writes of Home Demonstration Work

By MRS. ELMO BLIZZARD, Sec., Duplin Federation of H. D. Clubs

The Home Demonstration club has helped me in many ways in the years that I have been a member.

The aims of this organization are to teach women better ways to be a homemaker. This means dressing, cooking more balanced meals and living a wholesome life as part of the community, which can only come from better home life.

By close association with the women in my community at our meetings I have become acquainted with the problems of the people around me and the ways in which they solve their problems. I benefit from this knowledge by being able to apply their solutions to some of my personal difficulties.

As a member of this organization I have had a chance to further the knowledge that I acquired in school, by being shown actual ways that my home activities can be done.

I have been fortunate in that night at 8, she will be at the Mount Olive high school, and Thursday at 8 p.m. she will be at the Pikeville high school.

Mrs. Harper said all women are invited to attend one of the demonstrations.

my home is located between two progressive communities; each of which has a well organized home demonstration group. Being interested in the work of both of these groups I became a member of the Outlaw's Bridge and the Scott's Store clubs. This gives me many opportunities to be of worthwhile service, which I might not have by being in one club.

A fine example of the great community spirit of club members was shown a few months ago when the Scott's Store group joined with the Herring's Store Lions club to erect a new community building for the use of all the people in this community. The Scott's Store club has raised money in various ways and has turned the money over to the building fund.

The Outlaw's Bridge club has proved itself worthy of praise by giving assistance in the construction of a new church, which replaced the old one that was burned. Many projects were taken by the group, but perhaps the church supper sponsored by the club were the most successful. After the completion of the church, again the club women took a hand in the improvement of the yards. Here we saw again the worth of club work and the training it had given us.

Teen Troubles

By John Douglas, M.D., and Mary Douglas

Question: "How can I become more popular with boys?"

Answer: In a recent survey of Junior and Senior high school boys, here is what they said. I like girls who:

1. Make me feel comfortable when I'm with them. That means a girl who can carry on a conversation and also one who can laugh off the little things that go wrong on a date. She makes me feel like she's enjoying herself and she is never sarcastic or critical.

2. Look as if they had spent some time getting ready for a date. And they shouldn't need a re-paint job done in public.

3. Look friendly. They should smile a lot—especially at the people they know.

4. Are fun to know. A good date is a girl you can have fun with.

5. Respect their parents. A girl should tell us what time she's supposed to be in. How is a fellow to know unless she tells him?

6. Give us a chance to use our manners. Let us ring the door bell and ask for them—and let us open the car door instead of them grabbing it open before we have a chance.

7. Remember that a fellow takes his cue from the girl. If she wants to ride around, or asks him in when everybody's in bed, or encourages one-arm driving—then he just naturally thinks she expects some necking before the evening is over.

8. Don't get mad and hang up when a guy calls to break a date

Mrs. Rhodes Was Buried On Saturday

Mrs. Oscar L. Rhodes of Wilmington, formerly of Calypso, died in a Wilmington hospital early Friday morning. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Wesley Memorial Methodist church in Wilmington with the Rev. Herman Winberry in charge. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery.

She was born in Calypso, December 2, 1900, the daughter of the late Georgia Crowe and Daniel Lee Flowers.

Surviving are her husband, O. L. Rhodes; two sons, O. L. Rhodes, Jr., and Albert F. Rhodes, both of Wilmington and Ernest L. Flowers of Smithfield; two sisters, Mrs. Paul Sasser of Mount Olive and Mrs. Everett Simmons of Smithfield; and two grandchildren.

because of some kind of emergency.

9. Know how to do a lot things—like swimming or skating or playing tennis - and ask sensible questions about football, baseball and basketball.

10. Don't drink. No matter what boys say, they really hate girls who hit the bottle.
