Bible Class of Methodist Meets

The Friendly Bible class of the First Methodist church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Alice Pate with Mrs. H. L. Cobbs, Mrs. Annie Mae Raper and Mrs. J. W. Bordeaux as co-hostesses. The house was decorated throughout with arrangements of flowers of the season.

The president, Mrs. Alice Loftin, presided, and the devotional, which was based on the 46th Psalm, was given by Mrs. J. W. Bordeaux. Following the business session the president turned the meeting over to the hostess group, who presented Mrs. Edward Harris as guest speaker. Mrs. Harris gave a very interesting talk on the Hawaiian Islands.

During the social hour guests were invited into the dining room where punch, sandwiches, cheese straws, and nutty fingers were served.

Mrs. R. L. Cox was welcomed as a guest.

Miss Carol Price Married May 30 to Richard Kaleel in Clinton Church

The marriage of Miss Carol DeLoyce Price of Mount Olive and Richard Kaleel of Clinton, and Warsaw was solemnized in the Immaculate Conception Roman Catholic Church of Clinton, May 30, at 5 p. m.

Mrs. Joe Best of Clinton, organist, and Miss Francis Nassif presented a program of wedding music.

Miss Marie Kaleel of Clinton, sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a waltz length gown of blue taffeta and net featuring a strapless bodice, stole, and bouffant skirt covered with ruffles. Her gloves were of blue net, and she wore a picture hat of blue taffeta and net. She carried a nosegay of pastel flowers and rainbow ribbons attached to a white satin fan.

Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Sloan of Mount Olive, and Miss Mary John Best, cousin of the bride, of Graham. They wore dresses of lavender and green similar in style to that of the honor attendant.

Flower girls were Miss Jean Graves of Mount Olive and Miss Sylvia Kaleel, niece of the bridegroom, of Clinton. They wore dresses similar to that of the maid of honor and carried blue baskets filled with rose petals.

Ringbearer was William Kaleel of Clinton, nephew of the bridegroom. He wore a blue coat and white trousers. The bridegroom's father was his best man.

The bride was given in marriage by Fred Graves of Mount Olive. She wore a waltz-length gown of bridal satin, fashioned with a scalloped neckline, a bodice of Chantilly lace, and full skirt. She wore a necklace belonging to the bridegroom's mother which is an heirloom of the Kaleel family. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was attached to a satin crown beaded with pearls. She carried a bouquet on top of a satin bound Bible.

After the ceremony the couple received guests in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. Price, mother of the bride, wore a light blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Harold Adler, sister of the bridegroom, wore a navy dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Solly Kaleel, stepmother of the bridegroom, wore a lace beige dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

WHAT THE YOUNG FOLKS ARE DOING

By Kay Mitchell

Haven't decided whether all the young folks are working, hiding, or just plain being unsociable. But it's a fact that I sure haven't seen many of them out and around these past several days! Several of us got together last Saturday night when Ann Cooke entertained for Tuffy Graves' guest, Danny Avent, with a spaghetti supper at the Hines' cabin.

Danny is from Nashville and spent a few days with Tuffy last week. He and Tuffy both attended Riverside Military Academy. Tuffy graduated this year and Danny is a rising senior. But let's have more about Ann's dinner party.

We all went out to the cabin at 7 o'clock and after a little dancing and "conversing" Ann served a delicious dinner consisting of spaghetti, tossed salad, hot rolls and iced tea. Following that we "partied" for a while—chiefly catching up on what everyone had been doing for the past few months, and also their plans for the summer

CAKE CUTTING

Miss Marie Kaleel, Mr. and Mrs. Solly Kaleel, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaleel, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Adler entertained at the Kaleel home on Park avenue in Clinton, at an after-rehearsal cake cutting for the Price-Kaleel wedding party and close friends of both couples.

The home was beautifully decorated with mixed summer flowers in white and green. The centerpiece on a living room table was an arrangement of white carnations.

After the first slice was cut from a four-tiered wedding cake by the bride and groom-elect, Mrs. Albert Kaleel served the guests. Punch was poured by Mrs. Kermit Price, mother of Miss Price.

The members of the wedding party received gifts from the bride couple.

and the coming school year. Guests included Tuffy and Danny, of course, Shirley Hines, Ann Honeycutt, Mary Stevenson Britt, Elizabeth Holmes, Billy Warrick, Bobby Lazork, Mark Cherry, Boyd Wilson, and Durald Wilson.

This news is a little late in getting in, but Paul Crumpler, better known as "Little Doc," took a trip to Tampa, Fla., about two weeks ago and stayed for a week—he got to see several of the boys who were close friends when he called Florida "home" and had a WHALE of a good time! Said it really was a trip and a HALF!! See him for a more DETAILED account!!

Gaynelle Puckett and Mary Wolfe returned Saturday from Girls' State—they represented the local high school. From all I've heard they really had one wonderful time!

Guess that's about all for this week—just one more thing before closing. Seems like Patricia Hines has a DEFINITE new male interest—isn't his name Fred, Pat? How's about letting us know about these things?? See you next Friday!

La Place Home Club Met Last Wednesday

The LaPlace Home Demonstration club met Wednesday afternoon at the Community building with Mrs. Russell Whitfield, president, presiding over the business session.

In the absence of Mrs. Pauline Johnson, home agent, Mrs. Katherine Goodson gave a demonstration on preparing a quick and nutritious meal.

Mrs. Hazel Wells and Mrs. Geraldine Wells, hostesses, served soft drinks and cookies.
