Party Given for June Bride-Elect

Miss Margaret Jean Kraft and Mrs. James Wells were hostesses Friday evening at an informal party at the home of Miss Kraft honoring Miss Mary Dell Sutton, bride-elect of June.

The house was decorated throughout with arrangements of roses. On the mantel in the living room was a miniature bride and bridesmaids.

The table in the dining room was covered with a handmade crocheted cloth and centered with an arrangement of red roses flanked by white candles in crystal holders.

Upon arrival guests were seated at individual tables where bride and canasta were enjoyed.

The honoree was remembered with a corsage of white carnations and a gift of silver from her hostesses.

During the evening guests were served punch, open-faced sandwiches, cheese stars, bridal cakes and mints.

Following the bridge and canasta games, Miss Sutton was presented a large basket covered in green and white, and decorated with a nosegay of tiny pastel flowers and ribbon, filled with gifts from the guests.

High scorer for bridge was Miss Shirley Hines and low scorer was Mrs. William Davis. Both received a gift of note paper.

Green Thumb Club Has Picnic Supper

The Green Thumb Garden club held its annual picnic supper Wednesday night at municipal park, with husbands of members as special guests.

Hostesses were Mrs. Cecil Winstead, Mrs. R. E. Sutton, and Mrs. W. H. Franklin.

Mrs. Frank Clifton, retiring president of the club, was presented a flower container in recognition of her services to the club during the past two years. Mrs. Clifton announced that the club has received an honor roll certificate for outstanding services during the

Service League Met on Tuesday

The Mount Olive Service League held its last meeting of the club year Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. B. E. Dotson with Mrs. Harry Cooke, Mrs. Rethel Grimes and Mrs. W. D. Kornegay and Mrs. Shelton Taylor as co-hostesses.

The vice-president, Mrs. E. N. Ricks, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Roland Hodges, who was attending a teacher's meeting. A letter was read from Mrs. Hodges in which she thanked everyone for their cooperation during the year.

Mrs. O. E. Wilson, secretary, gave a report. Mrs. C. E. Matthews, ways and means chairman, urged the cooperation of the members in disposing of articles the club still has for sale.

Mrs. B. E. Dotson, Girl Scout chairman, gave a report on the work during the year and presented the following scout leaders, who were guests at the meeting, with gifts from the club:

Mrs. Leland Crow, Mrs. H. E. King, Mrs. James Francis, Mrs. Bill Lee, Mrs. Virginia Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Warren, Mrs. J. B. Flowers, Jr., Mrs. Hank Morris, Mrs. Byron Bryan, Mrs. Vernon Lowe and Mrs. H. J. Skipper.

Mrs. Dotson was also presented a gift from the club by Mrs. N. B. Wilson.

During the business session the meeting date was changed from the third Tuesday to the third Thursday beginning in September.

Mrs. Luby Bell, chairman of the Finer Carolina program, for the club, urged the cooperation and help of everyone in securing pictures and articles for the scrap book which is being kept by the Finer Carolina committee.

Following the business session the following new officers were installed by Mrs. Rodney Knowles, chairman of the finance committee: president, Mrs. Luby Francis Bell; vice-president, Mrs. C. E. Matthews; secretary, Mrs. H. J. Skipper; and treasurer, Mrs. Jack Loftin.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Siske, of Miami, Fla., announce the birth of a son, James Boyden, III, Wednesday, May 18. Mrs. Siske is the former Miss Doris Fagg, daughter of Mrs. Belle Fagg of Mount Olive.

This award is made by the Garden Club of North Carolina, Inc.

Miss Ruby Nicholson Wed in Formal Ceremony in Richmond, Va., Saturday

In a formal ceremony Saturday afternoon, May 14, at 4 o'clock in the chapel of the First Baptist church in Richmond, Va., Miss Ruby Carolyn Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nicholson of Mount Olive, route 2, became the bride of Bernard Jerome Levey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Levey of Richmond. Dr. Theodore F. Adams, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. John C. Crowder of Richmond was matron of honor and Mrs. John C. Burton, also of Richmond, bridesmaid. Mrs. Levey was his son's best man. Ushers were Manning J. Levey, Benjamin Denny, III, Edward R. Carter, and John H. Burton, all of Richmond.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Bermuda. On their return they will make their home in Richmond.

Those from North Carolina attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson and Mrs. Glanton Holland of route 2, Mount Olive, Mrs. Wilson K. Lewis of Mount Olive, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth LaCoe

Review Meeting of Methodist Ladies

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, Mount Olive, met in the Educational building Monday evening to review the work of the past fiscal year and discuss plans for the new year.

Mrs. Shelton Boyd, retiring president, presided. The Rev. D. L. Fouts, pastor of the church, gave the invocation.

After a dutch supper, the business and study session was held. Mrs. Luby Bell was at her post as secretary, and Circle Seven, of which Mrs. Boyd Wilson was leader, presented the program material on the topic, "Be Ye Doers of the Word." Taking part were Mrs. W. D. Kornegay, Jr., Mrs. Boyd Wilson, and Mrs. H. M. Cox. Mrs. Ed Herring led the devotional, and Miss Mary Helen Burgess sang "Give of Your Best to the Master."

Mrs. Boyd presented the new officers: Mrs. Fred Sutton, president; Mrs. W. D. Kornegay, Jr., vice-president; Mrs. Luby Bell, secretary; Mrs. Frank Clifton, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Warren, treasurer for local work; Mrs. Allen Andrews, secretary of promotions; Mrs. Shelton Boyd and Mrs. H. M. Cox, spiritual life; Mrs. Norbert Wilson, missionary education; Mrs. W. L. Hood, supplies; Mrs. D. L. Fouts, status of women; Mrs. William Bizzell, student work; Mrs. Boyd Wilson, youth work; Mrs. W. E. Taylor, children's work; Mrs. Nelson Ricks, Christian social relation and local church activities,

Bridge Winners

Mrs. Helen Caviness and Mrs. J. L. Smith were high scorers at the Mount Olive Duplicate Bridge club games played Tuesday night at the Community building.

Miss Ruth Gardner and Mrs. Boyd Wilson were second, and tied for third were: Mrs. S. B. Boyd, Mrs. Edwin Patten, Mrs. Zach Cox, Mrs. J. F. Oliver, Mrs. D. F. Odom, Sr., and Mrs. T. R. Thigpen.

and Mrs. Emmett Pope, literature and publications.

Circle leaders announced were Mrs. L. A. Long, Mrs. Eljas Sutton, Mrs. William Wilkins, Mrs. Jack Loftin, Mrs. Fred Farah, and Mrs. D. F. Odom.

The climax of the evening's program was the awarding of a life membership to Mrs. Shelton Boyd, who has served the Society as president for the past four years and who will in June assume her duties as president of the Goldsboro District. Mrs. D. L. Fouts made the presentation in behalf of the Society.

An exhibit of work done by the Bright Jewels, under the direction of Mrs. Lucille Ervin and Mrs. W. E. Tyler, and interior decoration projects, made possible through the efforts of Mrs. Ralph English, Mrs. Willie Hood and Mrs. Irma Byrd, were enthusiastically approved.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Frank Butte of Greensboro, Mrs. Charles Waters of Goldsboro, Mrs. W. T. Byrd of the Bethel church, and Mrs. Edgar Gardenhour of Richmond, Va., all former members of the local church.

Every effort is not crowned with success—and many of them do not deserve to be.
