

Total of 70 Hits in Four Softball Games Played Tuesday Night; Nine Homers Hit

The Baptist Chubs defeated Stanford Presbyterians 19-16, and the National Guard edged the Mount Olive Presbyterians 15-13 in softball games Tuesday night.

The four teams collected a total of 70 hits, with 43 coming in the Chub-Stanford slugfest. Nine home runs were hit during the night, four by members of the Chub team.

Prentice Brock, with two round-trippers and a single, and Eddie Summerlin, with two doubles and a triple, led the attack for the Chubs, while R. Pate, the Stanford pitcher, had a perfect night at bat with two doubles, a triple and a single. Coy Kornegay of the Stanford club also collected four hits, three singles and a double.

In the National Guard-Presbyterian tilt, Jiggs Harris, with a home run, double and two singles, led the Guard attack, while Teammates Billy Stevens and Sloan accounted for three hits each, one of Stevens' being a circuit blow. Godwin led the Presbyterians with two dou-

Mrs. Fouts Speaks On Friendship Day

Mrs. D. L. Fouts was Friendship Day speaker at the Northeast Negro church Sunday afternoon.

She used as her topic, "The Master Has Come and Calletth for Thee," in which she brought out that women are answering the call to Christian service. She was introduced by Mrs. R. L. Cox.

It was announced yesterday the Friendship gift now totals more than $300. Part of this will go toward installing a cement floor in the church's kitchen. The remainder will go toward Christian education.

Other speakers Sunday were Mrs. James Pigford, Mrs. Lottie Pearsall and Mrs. Lippman Durham.

Johnny Puckett Is State College Grad

Johnny Puckett of Mount Olive was graduated from North Carolina State college, Raleigh, Sunday, receiving a degree in Industrial Engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Puckett.

Frank Boyette of Newton Grove received a degree in Agriculture Education at the graduation exercises.

Bible Schools for Calypso Reported

The Methodist and Presbyterian churches of Calypso are holding their daily vacation Bible schools jointly this summer, it was announced.

Classes will be held at the Presbyterian church, beginning Monday at 9 a.m.

Five-Club Midget Baseball League Formed for Season

A five-club midget baseball league has been formed as part of the city's summer recreation program, Director Dave McClenny announced this week.

Four of the teams will be sponsored by Mount Olive groups, with the fifth being an entry from Calypso. Rosters for the local clubs have been drawn up with each team assigned 13 to 15 boys between the ages of 9 and 12, but others of this age group interested in joining should contact McClenny, the director reported.

McClenny said it is his hope that every boy will be given an opportunity to play and that is the reason for small squads.

Sponsoring local teams are the Jaycees, the American Legion, and The Tribune. The Rotary club is a prospective sponsor for the other club, McClenny said.

Those assigned to clubs are asked to remember the team to which they are assigned and to keep in mind the team's schedule. The rosters are as follows:

AMERICAN LEGION: Rodney Knowles, Jimmy Skipper, Charles Denning, Richard Porter, Jackie Lane, Dallas Sutton, Les Ipock, Jack Rivenbark, Bud King, Jimmy Whitfield, Dallas Weaver, Jimmy Weeks, and Jimmy Rivenbark.

JAYCEES: James O'Berry, Russell Parker, Jack Anderson, Mickey Davis, Bonnie Smith, Tenny Sutton, Haywood Adams, Kenneth Waters, Westly Sullivan, Stanley Lee, Jimmy Smith, Billy Troutman, William Weeks, and Joe Lee.

THE TRIBUNE: Dan Kornegay, Dayelle Whitfield, Hubert Pate, Royce Lane, Alton Summerlin, Jimmy Flowers, Jimmy Merritt, Reid Eason, Charles Ray Jones, James Newcomb, Jimmy Hall, Don Lee, Bernard Dotson, Denny Hatcher, and Jody Thompson.

ROTARY: Dwight Sutton, Dahnny Sinclair, Junior Malpas, Reggie Hines, Andy Wells, William Hargrove, Bruce Emerson, Bob Tillman, Jimmy Wood, Bob Troutman, L. B. Brewer, Coy Thompson, Buddy Flowers, and Bill Franklin.

The season starts Tuesday with the Legion meeting the Jaycees. The schedule for the remainder of the month is as follows:

Wednesday, June 8, Tribune vs Calypso; Friday, June 10, Jaycees vs Rotary; Tuesday, June 14, Legion vs Tribune; Thursday, June 16, Rotary vs Tribune; Friday, June 17, Legion vs Calypso; Tuesday, June 21, Legion vs Rotary; Friday, June 24, Jaycees vs Calypso; Tuesday, June 28, Tribune vs Jaycees, and Thursday, June 30, Calypso vs Rotary.

WADE KORNEGAY

Kornegay Is First Student To Be Trainee

Wade Melvin Kornegay, 21-year-old North Carolina college chemistry and mathematics major from Mount Olive, reported to the U. S. Naval Ordnance Laboratory, White Oak, Silver Springs, Md., Wednesday, to become the first NCC student in the history of the college to become a trainee in the Navy's Summer program.

Kornegay was selected to participate in the Laboratory Summer Employment program on the basis of competitive U. S. Civil Service examinations which he successfully passed in oceanography, mathematics, and chemistry. However, he elected to pursue work in chemistry.

At NCC, Kornegay is a member of Beta Kappa Chi national honorary scientific fraternity, vice-president of the junior class, a member of the Student Congress, and student representative on the Student Welfare Committee.

Kornegay plans a career as a physical chemist.

Institute Planned For Shelter Neck

The Rev. and Mrs. V. B. Bowering will accompany a group of young people of the Outlaw's Bridge Universalist church to Shelter Neck Sunday afternoon for an institute which will be held there next week.

Mrs. Bowering directed the Children's day program at the church Sunday morning. During the service, children gave their views of work done during the daily vacation church school and exhibited handiwork.

Worship services will be held at the church Sunday morning with the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Bowering, in charge.

Goshen Churches in Joint Bible School

The Goshen Methodist and Pentecostal churches will hold a joint Bible school this summer. The school begins Monday and will continue through next Friday, with classes in session from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Dempsey Benton is director of the school, and she will be assisted by members from each church, along with both pastors, the Rev. Norwood Jones and the Rev. Ralph Jernigan.

Parents, as well as students, are invited to the commencement and are asked to bring a picnic lunch.
