

News For Veterans

Veterans Administration reminds World War II veterans that they have one year from July 23 in which to complete GI training and two years from the same date in which to apply for GI loans.

July 23, 1954, marks the end of the education program for all but a few of the World War II veterans now in training under the original GI Bill.

GI training payments to schools and veterans will stop on that date even though a veteran may still have unused training entitlement or be in the middle of a course. The GI loan program, now at peak activity, has two more years to run, coming to end for practically all WWII veterans on July 25, 1957.

The small group of veterans exempted from these two deadlines are those who enlisted or re-enlisted under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act between October 8, 1945, and October 5, 1946. These veterans have nine years from the end of their enlistment or re-enlistment to finish GI training and 10 years to apply for GI loans.

"HOLE"-HEARTED PRACTICE SESSION—Seattle Rainiers hurler Ewell Blackwell serves 'em up for outfielder Art Schult as Schult tries for the range of the most-eyed bit of fence on the Pacific Coast circuit. A Seattle, Wash., TV station says it will pay $100,000 to any coast leaguer who drills one through the slightly-larger-than-baseball-size knothole in the Rainiers' left field fence during a scheduled game.

More than 90 per cent of the loans—3,750,000—were for the purchase of homes. Business loans totalled 220,000 and farm loans numbered 67,000.

More than 7,800,000—or half of all who served in World War II—received some sort of education or training under the GI Bill since 1944.

Peak of the GI Bill education and training program was reached in 1947 when more than 2,500,000 World War II veterans were in schools, on-the-job training establishments, or on farms throughout the country. Only about 138,000 World War II veterans are still in training under the original GI Bill.

Q—I am the widow of a World War I veteran, receiving a monthly VA pension. I am receiving Survivors' Insurance benefits, based on my late husband's employment. Are those benefits considered income, for pension purposes?

A—Survivors' Insurance benefits, which you receive on the basis of your late husband's employment, are considered as income.

TEETH IN WASTE BASKET

Oklahoma City, Okla. — Seeing a pupil struggling with a piece of candy, Mrs. Loretta Bonner a teacher, told the boy to either swallow the candy or toss it in the wastepaper basket. The boy told her the candy was stuck in his teeth. Jokingly, Mrs. Bonner told the youngster to "toss your teeth in the basket with the candy." The boy complied, to her surprise, throwing candy and teeth into the trash basket — he had a full upper plate.

U. S. CHECK BOUNCES
Los Angeles. — Edward Saver was greatly surprised when a Government check for $37.50 he had received bounced. It seems somebody in the U. S. Treasury Department had neglected to sign it.

CONSCIENCE MONEY
Charlotte, N. C. — The Internal Revenue Office here recently received a letter which read: "I owe you $300 and I haven't been able to sleep. I am enclosing $100. If I can't get any sleep after this I'll pay the balance next week."

DRIVER TOO YOUNG
Detroit — Mrs. Maxine Metzgen, 35, gave her son, Edward, Jr., 13, permission to drive the family car up the driveway into the garage. Edward apparently confused the brake and the accelerator. The car shot across the lawn, smashed an eight-foot picture window in a neighbor's house and came to a halt in their living room. The car was badly damaged and the neighbor's damage was estimated at $5,000.
