Moore-Lewis Ceremony in Turkey Baptist Church on August 14th

Miss Patricia Anne Moore and William Douglas Lewis were married in an afternoon ceremony in the Turkey Baptist church on August 14. The Rev. Earle J. Rogers of Washington and the Rev. J. L. Powers of Turkey officiated in the double-ring rites, before a background of emerald foliage, white tapers and baskets of white Fuji mums, gladioli and carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cleburne Moore of Turkey and niece of George Sum-Turkey and niece of George and E. A. Summerlin of Mount Olive. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lewis of Faison.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Tommy Phillips, soloist of Warsaw and Mrs. Walter T. Britt, pianist, of Clinton. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Rose-pointe lace and silk tulle over satin fashioned with portrait neckline. The bouffant skirt featured tiers of tulle and scalloped lace over net and satin. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliette cap of shirred lace accented with bands of satin. She wore a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a cascade of white Fuji mums and philodendron.

Mrs. Charles Honeycutt of Fayetteville, cousin of the bride, served as Matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Raymond Cobb of Tarboro, sister of the groom; Mrs. Kenneth Taylor of Faison, Mrs. Andrew Meeder of Bainbridge, Md., former college roommate of the bride, and Miss Sammie Ann Williams of Wallace, cousin of the bride.

The attendants were gowned in princess-styled dresses of jade green crystalet featuring empire waistline and V-neck. They wore matching bandeaux in their hair.

The honor attendant carried a cascade bouquet of bronze mums and philodendron. The bridesmaids carried cascades of yellow pom-pom chrysanthemums and philodendron.

Mr. Lewis was his son's best man. Ushers were Ernest Moore of Clinton and A. H. Pridden of Atkinson, uncles of the bride; Luther Lewis of Raleigh, brother of the groom, and Raymond Cobb of Tarboro, brother-in-law of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a Copenhagen blue dress of lace and linen over matching taffeta with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore Dior blue chantilly lace piped in matching satin with navy accessories. Their corsages were of pink roses.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom received in the vestibule of the church.

For traveling the bride wore a Dior blue sheath dress of silk and cotton with navy accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Lewis attended Meredith college and graduated from East Carolina college with a B. S. degree in Home Economics. She has served as assistant Home Demonstration agent in Wilson county for two years. This year she will be a member of the faculty of the recently-consolidated Faison-Calypso High school.

Mr. Lewis served with the U. S. Army in Korea and is now engaged in farming.

After their wedding trip the couple will be at home in Faison.

LUCK COMES TOO LATE

Pratt, Kansas — Believing there was oil on his land, Ezra Elliott worked hard to interest fellow citizens in oil development 80 years ago, but failed. After his death two years ago, drillers found oil on Elliott's land, just a mile from the first test well.

The best deal you can get is the deal built into a Pontiac!

The Spectacular Star Chief Custom Sedan

There's something you ought to know before you sign up for a new car—something half a million owners of the '55 Pontiac have already learned to their profit.

You actually get two important money-saving deals when you buy a future-fashioned Pontiac.

You get the kind of trade-in allowance you'd expect from Pontiac's volume sales. The biggest year in our history pays off for you in appraisals that won't be topped!

That's deal number one—and the second is even better! We're talking now of the terrific deal that is built right into the car itself.

Compare Pontiac's modest cost with that of any other car combining such fine-car size (124 inches of road-leveling, road-hugging wheelbase), such blazing horsepower (200* eager "horses") and such luxury-car stability—and here's what you'll find!

That combination anywhere else will cost you hundreds of dollars more!

Get the proof that the big, high-styled, high-powered Pontiac you really want to own is actually your easiest buy. Come in and talk trading—now!

*with 4-barrel carburetor, an extra-cost option.
