

WHAT THE YOUNG FOLKS ARE DOING

By MARY HELEN BURGESS

Hi, folks!
FINALLY! We have had a little social life! Last weekend was full of excitement for all of the teenagers. The Panthers won their homecoming football game and during the half-time Tenny's Warren was crowned the 1955-56 Varsity Queen. Congratulations, Tenny's, for this great honor!

October seems to be the month of parties and birthdays. Joyce Daughtry celebrated her 18th birthday Saturday by having a party at her house. Laurence Wilson, Norma Carol Summerlin, Donald Lindsay, David Gillis, Tommy Clifton, Stuart Patten, Ronald Lindsay, Clark Council, Jackie Paul Crumpler, Susan Abbott, Molly Dotson, Charles Johnson, Betty Lou Kennedy, Anne Bracey, Charlotte Hodges, Snow Miller, Ann Wilson, Rex Whitfield, Emma Kay Hines, Rebecca Oliver and Carole Brock were some of those who helped her celebrate this occasion.

To end this weekend of events, Rebecca Oliver had a small crowd at her house Sunday night. Those having a ball the last night of a BIG weekend were: David Gillis, Carole Brock, Bert May, Van May, Laurence Wilson, Anne Bracey, Sue Williams, Betty Lou Cooke, Harry Cooke, Stuart Patten, Jackie Paul Crumpler, Ernest Bracey and Emma Kay Hines.

Last Thursday was Senior Day at East Carolina college. Nearly all of the seniors went and toured the campus of EC. Everyone had a fine time and enjoyed the barbecue dinner served in the school cafeteria.

Many of the college students were home this weekend. From Carolina came Mark Cherry; from Meredith came Patricia Hines, Sylvia Martin and Margaret Jean Kraft; from Campbell came Carl Ginn, Gene Wolfe and Bill Up-

Decorator's Notebook

by Alicia Joyce

The wall-to-wall arrangement is fine for carpeting, but occasionally it gets monotonous when used for furniture. The "finished-on-all-sides" treatment gives the homemaker great leeway for interesting furniture arrangements in her living, dining or bedroom.

The desk in this colonial setting proves there is no longer any need to restrict your imagination with standard furniture arrangements. This desk enjoys the unique feature of being fully finished in back, as well as in front.

As shown, either a Windsor chair or a captain's chair is ideal for this particular style of desk. The desk provides an adequate working surface and sufficient storage space. The arrangement is decorative and unusual.

There are several maple and cherry finishes available. The wood is solid birch.

church, and Bill Loftin was home from State.

The Junior class is having a BARBECUE SUPPER at the high school lunch room Friday night before the football game. Let's all help the juniors and enjoy the delicious barbecue. The Panthers will play Smithfield Friday night (tonight), so remember to come out and support them.

GOSSIP BITS: Janet Whigs from Fayetteville was visiting Rebecca Oliver this weekend. Roger Stowe was also visiting in town during the weekend. Anne Bracey, Van May, Ann Wilson and Rex Whitfield made a foursome Saturday night. Is Van Anne's latest flame? Ann Honeycutt is in Florida where she is in training for an air line hostess. Earl Warren was home from Florida for a few days. Was that why Sylvia Martin was all smiles this weekend?

Well, I guess that is about all the news until next week! See ya then!

COLLECTS STAMPS 18 YEARS

Norfolk, Neb. — For the last 18 years, Marvin Jones has been collecting stamps. At the last count, Jones had more than 50,000 stamps in his bound albums. Among them are 25 one-cent Benjamin Franklin stamps issued many decades ago.

NEWS ABOUT PINEY GROVE TEEN-AGERS

By Rosa Lee Sullivan, Alice Faye Sutton, Patricia Hatcher

Hi folks!

It seems the good ole hot summer days are over and everyone is settling down again, to what comes naturally, cold weather and studying!

Rosa Lee Sullivan, Alice Faye Sutton and Gerald Clifton were seen in Goldsboro Wednesday night.

Those cheering at the Panther-Vanceboro game last Friday night were Jean Ellis, Mitchell Daughtry, Craven and Louis Brewer, Charles, Elizabeth and Christine Daughtry, Ray Pate, Mrs. Norbert Wilson and Helen Grimes.

Hey! Who was visiting Kinston Sunday afternoon? We believe it was Alice Faye Sutton, Gerald Clifton, Linda Faye Sutton and Jerry Keith Best! They also visited the Cliffs of the Neuse.

Faye King, Jerry Harrell, Jeanette Murphy, Douglas Blackman and Hetty Murphy were seen in Warsaw Saturday night.

Hey! What's this? Don't ask Alice Faye about it because she knows all about it, and is she jealous, because — Gerald Clifton took Ginger Boyette, Ann Daughtry and Jerry Keith Best to the show
