ABOUT YOUR HOME

By FRANCES DELL

One of the most important functions of a home is to turn out happy, well-adjusted children, who will in turn make a home of their own.

Any parent who wants to prepare a son or daughter for success in the world and success as a husband or wife might well concentrate on these measures:

1. Set a good example for your children to follow. Let them see the happy behavior of their own father and mother.
2. Let the children take an active and important part in the work of their own home, from early childhood onward. A young child will take a great deal of pride in doing even the simplest chore. It will give him a feeling of importance and help him develop a sense of responsibility. Do not expect too much of your children for this will make them nervous.
3. Make sure you are giving your children a sound and accurate attitude toward sex from infancy onward.
4. As they grow in to adolescence, make every effort to see that they have friends of both sexes and plenty of opportunity to meet with these friends informally, to work together as well as play together. Let them feel free to invite their friends into their home.
5. Have some form of entertainment that all the members of the family can join in. Music is a perfect topic of mutual enjoyment. Always include the children in on vacations. A family vacation to the beach or mountains once a year will add to the enjoyment of all.
6. Be understanding. Be fair and always consistent. Children understand this type of treatment. When it is necessary to punish them, make sure they understand that the treatment is fair.

There's Nothing Like a Tasty Casserole for Winter Eating

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

TRY combining wide egg noodles, deviled ham and cheese in a hearty, main-dish casserole. Tastes delicious, is easy to prepare and will please all the family.

Deviled Cheesed Noodles (4 servings)

One package (7 ounces) wide noodles, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 small green pepper, chopped; 1 small onion, chopped; 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 cup grated, process, sharp cheese; 1 family size (4 1/2-ounce) can deviled ham, salt and pepper to taste, 1 cup evaporated milk.

Cook noodles as directed on package. In hot fat saute pepper, onion and parsley. Combine cooked, drained noodles with sauted vegetables, cheese and ham. Season to taste.

Turn into greased casserole and pour on milk. If desired, sprinkle with buttered crumbs. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 30 minutes, or to a golden brown.

If you want an economical chicken dish, try this chicken-with-fruit-sauce recipe.

Chicken With Fruit Sauce (6-8 servings)

Two packages (1-pound size) frozen chicken thighs, breasts, drumsticks or wings, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup ginger ale (or a 7-ounce bottle), 1/4 cup diced dried prunes; 4 thin slices lemon, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash black pepper.

Invest in Dependability... get a Bonus in Go!

You can buy it on its name alone—this big, high-powered '56 Pontiac—and be safe in the knowledge that you couldn't have made a better investment in years of dependable, carefree motoring.

The good things you've been hearing about Pontiac for years assure you that.

But "go" is the word for '56! Performance so new and dramatic it must be experienced to be believed!

A short spell behind the wheel will nail that statement down as a fact. Come along for a drive and see.

Waiting for the light to change, you can't hear the engine. But touch your toe to the accelerator and in a split second there's a torrent of power, sparked by the most advanced engine of them all—the blazing 227-h.p. Strato-Streak V-8.

Team this terrific power plant with Pontiac's all-new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic* and you've got the smoothest take-off that ever brightened a highway.

And remember—this easy handling dream is actually among the biggest, huskiest cars built!

Now for the final test—head for the open road and some landmarks you can challenge. Wipe out a hill. Straighten a curve. Smooth out a stretch of rough road that's bothered you for years.

Now see why they're calling this the greatest "go" on wheels?

More than that—it's the greatest buy on wheels! And that too, is easy to prove.

Then take a look at the price tag—a check on our deal.

Nothing will stop this powerful beauty from being yours!

You can actually have a big, glamorous Pontiac 860 for less than you would pay for 44 models of the low-priced three!
