MOUTHPIECE—

lips—
The lesson was done.
"Have you a new leaf for me, dear teacher?"
I have spoiled this one."

I took his leaf all soiled and blotted,
And gave him a new one all unspotted.
Then into his tired heart I smiled,
"Do better now my child."

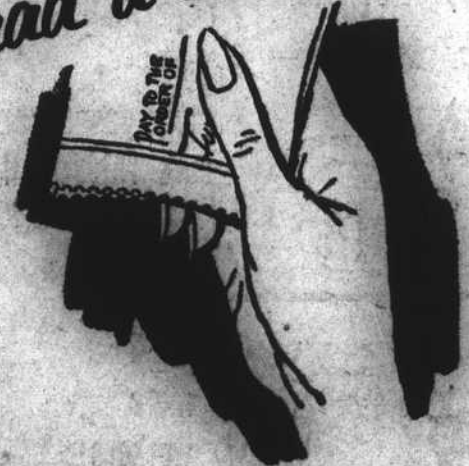

I went to the throne with trembling heart,
The year was done.
"Have you a new year for me, dear Master,
I have spoiled this one."

He took my year all soiled and blotted,
And gave me a new one all unspotted.
Then into my tired heart He smiled—
"Do better now, my child."

Dusting of Cotton Paid This Farmer

The importance of dusting cotton struck home to Howard Thomas of Mount Olive, route 4, in Wayne County.

Assistant Negro County Agent C. R. Greene says that Thomas dusted his 11 acres of cotton and made seven bales of cotton. A neighbor failed to dust his cotton and only picked a bale and a half from six acres of land.

When asked to what he attributed the big difference in yield, Thomas replied: "I dusted the cotton properly." The neighboring farmer said cotton dusting was a "waste of time."

Although the accidental "demonstration" provided a good contrast, Thomas is just glad that he was the farmer doing the dusting.

B. F. Grady Teams Take Two From North Duplin on Friday

By MIKE GOODSON
The B. F. Grady basketball teams won over North Duplin Friday night. The boys won 57-47 and the girls, 83-64, in games played on the winners' courts.
Rose Herring, with 42 points, scored high for the Grady girls. Elaine Howell sank 27 points for the winners. Earlier this season the two clubs had played to a tie.
In the boys' game the score was close during the first half and either team could have gone ahead by 10 to 14 points in the second half had they not missed easy shots under the baskets. As it was, Grady was ahead 8-6 at the end of the first period and 23-19 at the half. In the third period, Grady took a 14-point lead, but this was cut to 10 in the final quarter.
Grady's Stafford, with 30 points, was the game's high scorer. Ed Lewis of North Duplin paced the losers with 19 points.
