C. McLean.

lege in Greensboro.

Mr. W. J. Johnson of Lobbella was a visitor to Raeford yesterday, and called at this office to do us good as he always does.

Hoke county lost some valued citizens in the Messrs. Diggs, who returned to their home in Anson county last week, after a residence of four years on Mr.
W. T. Covington's farm. They will always be pleasantly remembered here.

About the meanest thing we have yet heard is this story that a trained nurse at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., supposed to be a woman, proved to be a man and that he had been spreading disease germs among the men.
That is too despicable to think of. We hope it isn't true.
