To The Red Cross Workers of Hoke County.

I congratulate you on your great drive of Monday when you raised double your quota and put Hoke on the first page of our State Dailers.

Now let's keep it up until every man, woman and child in the County has responded to your call to help raise this fund of mercy and until "out of the hell of slaughter" the Red cross shall have guided the erring nations to a haven of peace and until it can never say of Hoke any more that she has not done her duty.

Hoke is doing nobly and again I congratulate and thank you,
J. W. Goodman,
Red Cross War Fund Chm.

The whole county, and our whole country are surpassing everybody's expectations.

The premium being offered to the first township raising its quota of Red Cross funds goes to Allendale. Mr. J. W. Currie made a speech at Allendale School House Sunday night and instead the $115 allotted to them they raised $154 on the spot. You may hand it to Allendale.

The last we heard from Blue Springs was that they had gone over the top on Red Cross contributions and hadn't started. Hand a bouquet to Blue Springs also.

PROGRAM AT THE FREDISON THEATRE RAEFORD, N. C. FOR THE COMING WEEK.

THURSDAY, MAY 23RD:

"Her Boy," a patriotic picture featuring Effie Shannon and Miles Welsh. This show is given for the benefit of the Red Cross. Everybody come and help this good cause.

SATURDAY, MAY 25TH:

"The Ship of Doom," a Triangle feature with an all-star cast. "Sauce for the Goose"—one reel comedy.

Show opens 8 O'clock.

"HER BOY."

On account of the speaking at the school house tonight, Fredison Theatre will put on "Her Boy" at 7 o'clock. Another performance will be given after the speaking. Remember it's a good show and for the Red Cross.

The recent rainy weather has put the farmers in the grass and they are busy this week.

Sheriff Hall and Deputy Cockman went up into Little River township Monday evening and brought in another blockade whiskey still made of two galvanized tubs but it had a copper cap and worm. There was nobody about the place when the officers came on the outfit.

Local Items.

Go out to the speaking tonight and get it straight.

Mrs. J. H. Currie of Waycross Ga. has returned home after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Leach. Mrs. Currie attended the marriage of her sister before coming home.

Only in the legislative tickets will there be any contest in the coming primary; for the Senate J. W. Johnson and J. A. McGoogan are contesting; for the House, John A. Hodgin and H. S. Kirkpatrick are opposing candidates.

People left in Hoke will have to do double duty for with enlistments in the Army and Navy and those gone to camp building and shipyards has left us short of labor sure as you live. It's alarming if continued. But we are men and women in Hoke.

Messrs. A. J. and Ernest Jordan of Allendale township were in town Monday. They gave us a Snake story: Some days ago Mr. Ernest Jordan found and killed a large highland moccasin and thought he saw another run under a log. He so told his father Mr. A. J. Jordan and upon search he found four other large snakes in a coil and shot and killed the bunch, this making five of these poisonous reptiles in a gang all dead.

A RED CROSS BENEFIT SHOW,

"Something About Her Boy."

"Her Boy" is a patriotic screen drama which shows how the war comes to the hearts of families. Helen Morrison, the mother in "Her Boy," looks at the world's great struggle in the wrong light. Her viewpoint is entirely selfish. She does not want her boy to show himself a man; she wants him near her. She sees the sacrifice, not as the precious privilege, of service to the nation.

David Morrison is a typical red-blooded American youth with the fire of true patriotism burning in his heart. Home ties are dear, but honor is dearer. The situations and developments in "Her Boy" are vitally dramatic and surprising, bringing Helen to the realization that service is greater than self. "Her boy" is a story of intense human appeal, with patriotic devotion.
Shown at Fredison Theatre, N. C., May 23rd, 1918.
