

HOKE COUNTY JOURNAL

VOL. XV, NO. 46.

RAEFORD, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1920.

$1.50 Per Year.

Butter In.
Colbie Jones backed Mr. Luke Bethune's Ford from the curb into the street Saturday week, and a colored man driving a big car down the street struck the Ford and took off a wheel.
Messrs. Max Heins, on a truck, and Ernest Fridell, in a Ford, collided on the street Wednesday of last week.
Last Friday evening Messrs. J. H. Wilkes in a Ford and N. B. Taylor in a Chevrolet ran together on nearly the same spot as the other two accidents.
Just how it all happened nobody knows.

Mrs. May McKessie McBryde.
On last Thursday, Feb. 5th, at 5:20 o'clock, p. m., after many months of intense suffering, and when all earthly aid had proven vain, the death angel invaded the home of Mr. W. J. McBryde and claimed the wife and mother. Although her death was unexpected, it came as a shock to many of her friends.

She had been in declining health for a number of months, but bore her long suffering with Christian fortitude, and was conscious to the last.

Mrs. McBryde was the oldest daughter of the late J. E. and Catherine McKenzie, and was about thirty six years of age.

On December 28, 1908, she was happily married to William James McBryde. To this union were born four children, all of whom survive together with the grief stricken husband, the aged mother, one brother and one sister.

Mrs. McBryde was a most respectable, modest, loving and ready at all times to do good to others.

While we will all keenly miss her personal presence, we feel, "It is well with her soul."

Owing to the feebleness of her mother, the funeral services were conducted from the home on Friday p. m. at 4 o'clock, by the pastor, J. W. Goodman, after which amid a concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, her remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Antioch cemetery.

To the bereaved ones, we offer our heart felt sympathy.

"How blest the righteous when he dies."

LOVED ONE.

McFadyen-Stephens.

Mr. Franklin McFadyen, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McFadyen of Raeford, R. F. D. No. 2, was happily married to Miss Beatrice Stephens of Tampa, Fla., on Jan. 29th, ult., in the First Baptist church of that city by the bride's pastor, Rev. C. W. Duke.

Mr. McFadyen is a popular salesman for Swift & Co., with headquarters at Rocky Mount, this State, who has numerous friends throughout this section.

The bride is a beautiful and accomplished young lady, whose popularity is well attested by the people of her own city.

A reception was given the young couple at the home of the groom's parents near Raeford on the evening of the 30th, ult.

Yesterday's papers report four thousand new cases of influenza in the State.

Mr. N. F. Sinclair of Montrose was in town yesterday, and he told a Journal reporter that he did not think there was a family between the Sanatorium and Aberdeen exempt from influenza.

The little girl whose name heads the list is only three years old, but her heart was so touched by the pictures she saw of the poor naked, starving children that she told her father to bring me every cent she had to help feed them. She gave all she had. Have you given anything?

J. W. GOODMAN,
Chm. for Hoke County.

Several gentlemen have promised to support an orphan each, we have not yet reported.—Ed.

Chief Cockman was called to Fayetteville Tuesday to have his bloodhounds trail up thieves who had broken into a candy Kitchen and had stolen three barrels of sugar.

You do a little bit less and charge a little bit more for all you furnish to the fund of human happiness, and this thing keeps on, where do you suppose the game will wind up? This disposition of most people seem to be: Do as little as you can for all you can get, with a standing demand for more.

Had old Hozenzollern succeeded, he would have gone down in history as a great man, a statesman and conqueror, at least in the estimation of some people. German atrocities in Belgium and France were awful to think of and the guilty perpetrators deserve to die for their crimes, the heartless wretches! The recital of their acts of vandalism reminds us of Gen. Bill Sherman's Victorious March to the Sea.

By invitation Rev. B. P. Robinson went out to Spring Branch Academy and made a speech on Armenian and Syrian Relief, after which a collection was taken for this cause which amounted to $41.24: The school pledged to support an orphan for one year; Miss Lettie McMillan is principal of this school, and this reminds of the splendid contributions made to the Red Cross and other causes, during the war, and the collection last Friday afternoon following Robinson's appeal shows their zeal has not diminished.

It was decided in Superior court in Lumberton last week, Judge O. H. Allen presiding, that W. P. McAllister had not been legally elected county welfare officer in Robeson. McAllister was elected by county commissioners and board of education in joint session. There were two candidates for welfare officer, McAllister of Lumberton and Conoly of Red Springs, and on ballot each received 4 votes; John W. Ward voting first as a member the board, then casting a deciding vote as chairman of the joint meeting in favor of McAllister breaking the tie.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hodgkin of Antioch were in town Sunday.

We are told this winter is the severest in years in the northern states.

There will not be much change in prices generally in two or three years.

Webster said anything is worth what it will bring. That is hard to believe nowadays.

Somebody said fur skins are the highest ever known; That a coon hide was worth $3.

Those in authority are closing all public meeting in a number of North Carolina towns on account of the flu.

The Journal is proud of the benevolent spirit of our people as shown in The Near East Relief contributions.

Katie, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Chisholm, has been quite sick with pneumonia but is now convalescent, we are glad to report.

The North Atlantic coast of the United States was buried in snow, and one of the severest storms in years swept that section, accompanying the snow, the latter part of last week.

We would be glad if the people generally would take an interest in reporting three things to The Journal, to-wit: Deaths, marriages and sickness—real sickness. Such is news. Drop us a card.

The Hoover boom struck an obstruction when it hit the rank and file. The voters of neither party will vote for him. If the Democrats nominate him, he will get about such a vote as Greely received in 1872.

Northern papers are saying editorially that cotton is too high. They begin at the wrong end of the dilemma. 40-cent cotton could be spun and woven into 20-cent gingham. Everything else proportionately.

We heard a prominent Raeford man say a few days ago that he didn't believe that the people were going to do enough work this year to make a crop. Those who used to work are indeed quite indifferent about it.

Bryadus Utley, aged 16, of Sanford, playfully snapped an unloaded pistol, as he thought, in Miss Lelia Causey's face, with the result that the young lady has a painful wound in the face just below her right eye.

There is a big difference in the price of building material in different localities. One Hoke county man, who did some building, paid $100 to $110 per thousand ft for his lumber; another, who built, bought lumber in the opposite direction, not much further away, paid $39 per thousand. You see prices depend.

General Manager Hines confronts a demand from two million railroad men who demand an increase in wages. If there is an increase in freight rates, there will be a will be a sure enough row raised by over a hundred million people who are now burdened by high freight rates, so he is in a serious dilemma. And all these railroad employees are to strike, if their demands are not granted.

STRAY PIG—I have impounded a small female pig about three months old, sandy, or roan color. Owner can get same by paying for keep and for this notice.

A. J. NEW,
Raeford, N. C., R. 2.

There is still quite a little unpicked cotton in Hoke.

We notice the folks are listing their personal property right along.

Miss Eunice Blue came home from Queens College, Charlotte, Sunday.

Miss Offie Graham is sick with influenza at Queens College, Charlotte.

Mr. W. P. Walters has been sick a week, but is improving we are glad to learn.

Miss Ruth Shaw of Statesboro, Ga., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Thomas.

Little boys should be taught at home the art of making things that do not belong to them.

We are sorry to chronicle the news of the sickness of Mr. M. S. McDermid who has gripped.

We are told 2000 acres of land have been added to the taxable under the valuation act.

These posts warning automobiles to keep to the right should be placed at once. They do good.

That man Swafford, who was Chief of Police in Aberdeen, has been sent to a Federal prison for bleeding.

Mr. Fetter has a nice lot of mules and horses, and no mistake. They are as good as he could find.

We are in hopes influenza will not become epidemic in Raeford or in the county. People should be very cautious.

NOTICE—Leave your subscription to The Journal. If you owe for last year pay for two years.

Miss Tia Graham is at home from King's Business College in Raleigh. Miss Virginia Benoy is sick with influenza.

Messrs. Murdoch McLeod and Raymond Hall came home from Davidson College on account of the prevalence of influenza.

Messrs. J. A. Hodgkin and D. T. Skipper of Antioch were in town Monday. They told us no influenza is reported in that section.

Mr. M. W. McLean lost control of his car a few days ago, and bumped into Mr. Floyd's gasoline tank and knocked the top off it.

We have three candidates for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district: Vann of Monroe, Brock of Wadesboro, and Hammer of Asheboro.

There are three candidates for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Sixth District: Godwin of Dunn, Shaw of Fayetteville, and Lyon of Chadburn.

Six of his school mates, Frank Culbreth, Wilber McDonald, James Williamson, Marion Dew, Arch McLean, and Alfred Cole, acted as pall bearers at Curtis Andrews' funeral. This is what we came all around saying last week, but didn't.

WANTED—Chicken, eggs and butter.
K. P. BATTLE,
Hotel Red Springs.

FOR SALE—9 year old mule; will work anywhere, and is in good condition. See or write E. A. McNEILL, Red Springs, N. C., R. 1.

FOR SALE—Two Ford Touring Cars in A1 condition. See J. L. Teal at Hoke Motor and Machine Company, Raeford.

Mr. Loch McInnis of St. Pauls was in town yesterday.

It is said the influenza is as bad in Raleigh as it was last winter.

Like wild fire is how the flu is said to be spreading in Stateville this week.

The price of cotton advanced a little yesterday. Good cotton would have sold for 38c.

President Wilson wants compulsory military, but the Democratic party leaders are opposed to that.

A mixture of snow, hail and rain fell here yesterday morning for a while, but we haven't had snow enough to cover the ground this winter.

O. L. Derrick was arrested and required to give bond for driving his car over Miss Geneva Daniells in Fayetteville last Saturday night.

It now develops that the peace treaty might have been ratified last November had all the warring factions in our government understood each other.

Mr. W. J. Stone, a new recruit from South Carolina to Hoke county, who is now living near Rockfish, called yesterday to subscribe for The Journal.

Recruits for the Army and Navy are not being found as fast as the Government wants them. The men who have been in military service have had a surfeit of it.

There are three thousand people sick with influenza in the city of Greensboro, and many of the sick have had poor, or rather no attention, according to the Daily Record.

Miss Maude Poole, accompanied by Miss Blanche Bailey, her associate teacher, came in Friday night and remained until Sunday when they returned to Franklinton.

Bonnie Blue says he has caught every fox his pack of hounds ran this season except two. He has caught 26 and Martin McKeithan has caught the same number.

Mr. Hector McBryde has sickness in his family; he himself, his little daughter, Elizabeth, and Miss Hattie May Hasty, all have pneumonia and are quite sick we are sorry to learn.

Rev. J. M. Clark, D. D., of Stateville, who assisted the pastor, Rev. J. W. Goodman, in a meeting last week at Antioch, preached strong and convincing sermons, which doubtless accomplished great and lasting good. 14 new members were received into the church upon profession of faith in Christ, and two by letter.

A Card of Thanks.
I desire to express my thanks to my friends and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy and help during the illness of my beloved wife, and at the time of her death. They did all they could, for which I thank them:
W. J. McBRIDE.

LOST—Between Raeford and Red Springs one nearly new United States Tread Tire on rim, 32 x 4. Reward if returned to T. C. Ingram, Raeford, N. C.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE

Seeley, Famous in This Specialty, Called to Fayetteville.

F. H. Seeley of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted truss expert, will personally be at the La Fayette Hotel and will remain in Fayetteville Wednesday only, Feb. 18. Mr. Seeley says: "The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast improvement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects, immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatment or prescriptions. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C. for inspection. All charity cases without charge, or if any interested call, he will be glad to show same without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

P. S. Every statement in this notice has been verified before the Federal and State Courts—F. H. Seeley.

Notice to Trespassers.

All persons are hereby forbidden to trespass on the land of the late J. H. Morgan in Antioch Township, Hoke County, adjoining the lands of Mack Gibson, Jno. Parish, deceased, Miss Lavena Smith and J. H. Townsend, by either cutting or hauling wood, straw, litter, hunting or removing anything off of land. Anyone violating any of the above will be prosecuted to the extent of the law.
J. C. Morgan and Sisters,
Shannon, N. C., Route 1.

Mr. Joel Gibson, of Gibson, Scotland county, died Monday, the 9th inst. He was a good citizen, and useful man.

Influenza is reported spreading in Scotland county.

Miss Virginia Benoy arrived in Raeford this week.

State of North Carolina, Department of State:

CERTIFICATE OF DISSOLUTION.
To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

WHEREAS, It appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Hoke Mercantile Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated in the town of Raeford, County of Hoke, State of North Carolina, (W. B. McLaughlin being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revisal of 1905, entitled "Corporations", preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J. BRYAN GRIMES, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 4th day of February, 1920, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Raleigh this 4th day of February, A. D. 1920.
J. BRYAN GRIMES,
Secretary of State.
