Your friends will not know when to depend on you, if you prove untrue to them even occasionally.

Bryan may be wrong in some things but he is also right sometimes, and he has rendered the Democratic party some excellent service, so let the old fellow alone.

Some Democrats threaten to bolt the party and vote the Republican ticket if such and such happens. Listen men! If you vote the Republican ticket now you endorse that party's past record and become responsible for that party's future conduct. If that is your desire, go your route.

Carlton Fry Drowned

Mr. Carlton Fry, a prominent young business man of Carthage, well known in Raeford and a nephew of Mrs. J. W. Johnson, was drowned at Lake view Sunday afternoon while bathing with a dozen other persons. His body was recovered a short time after it sank by Messrs. Alex. Walters of Raeford and Kelly of Sanford.

It is said Mr. Fry had heart trouble, and his death may have been due to that. Anyhow there was no notice given his associate: there was no alarm given, no struggle to attract attention.
