It may be you can swap a bale of cotton for a pair of shoes

The walls of McGill & McNeill's new store are going pretty well these days.

Messrs. John Adams, Cecil Dew, Earle Blue, Willie Hodgin, and Angus McBryde have gone to Davidson College.

Mrs. L. J. Collins and children have returned to their home in Badin after spending several days here with relatives.

Newspaper has gone up another cent on the pound. Evidently that's not governed by the price of what it's made of.

All the schools in McLaughlin township are to be consolidated. The idea is to have only one school—to have one high school where they now have four primary schools.

Of course the special taxes for schools, or other purposes, is to be added to the 52 cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, but the amount must not total more than a ten per cent. increase upon last year's taxes.

Joseph Hall, white, a prominent farmer and sawmill man, was killed at a blockade still by the sheriff and posse last Saturday morning. The officers were hid near by, saw the still in operation, and when the blockaders started away with their jugs filled with liquor the officers called on them to halt they set down their jugs and opened fire. The officers returned the fire, and after firing ceased Hall was found mortally wounded.
