

HOKE COUNTY JOURNAL

RAEFORD, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1920.

$2.00 Per Year.

The low price of cotton has stopped the real estate business.

Judge Horton will hold our next term of court. We read he is only 26 years old.

We have not heard of a deer, in fact nothing worth while, being killed this season.

The Journal has been wrong; Superior court convene Nov. 29, Monday after Thanksgiving.

The hobbyhorses are in town, and running at a loss, still they are here, if that's comforting. called up a lady or two, and found them ready, as they always are, to help make the day worthwhile. Mr. Smith then went to the school building and announced a popular meeting for everybody in the school auditorium Thursday night, and special entertainment for the soldier boys.

Due to a misunderstanding and a late start not very many attended, but we had a good time.

A. D. Gore explained the purpose of the American Legion.

Wm. L. Poole explained a garage, the Hindenburg Line garage in particular.

J. W. McLaughlin spoke for the Confederate Veterans, and in appreciation of the services of the World War veterans.

Oscar Leach presented the cause of the Red Cross, explaining its vast and ready services.

Mrs. H. A. Cameron, Mrs. J. C. Thomas, Mrs. R. E. Lewis, Mrs. Paul Dickson and Miss Benjie Lee Upchurch (who had been assisted by others in various and sundry ways) served oysters, sandwiches, coffee, pickles, minis, etc. bountifully, gracefully and to great pleasure of a number of guests, about twenty of whom were World War veterans.

celebration, and it guaranteed a more elaborate celebration in the future.

Camp Lamb Meeting.

The called meeting of the members of Camp Lamb met in the commissioners' room in the court house last Friday morning.

The following members were present: Alex. McMillan, Comdr., presiding, A. D. Guin, Adj., J. W. McLaughlin, W. G. Johnson, W. J. McCraney, M. D. Bethune, L. J. Hobson, J. Peele.

Appropriate resolutions in memorial of comrades who have recently died were adopted.

The following resolution was also adopted:

We, the members of Camp Lamb Confederate Veterans, in meeting assembled respectfully resolve 1st. That the General Assembly of North Carolina be petitioned to place deserving negroes who took the place of soldiers, or slaves who faithfully performed the duties of soldiers; they are now few in number; they are still true and worthy citizens, and for these reasons we request our Representative, Mr. Oscar Leach, to draw and introduce a bill in the next session of our General Assembly allowing the names of these deserving negroes to be placed on pension rolls by pension boards.

Pastime Theatre Program.

Thursday Night: Mary Pickford in "Rebecca of Sunbrook Farm." This picture is shown everywhere else at 50c. Here 20 and 30c.

Friday Night: Mack Sennett Comedy and Serial.

Saturday Night: "Treasure Island" from Stevenson's great novel. This is one of the best shows. Admission 30 and 50c.

In Memoriam.

Whereas in the wisdom of our Supreme Commander the following members of Camp Lamb, United Confederate Veterans being called their reward, they having died since the last meeting of the camp, viz.: J. D. J. J. McPhaul, who died Aug. 31st; H. J. McPhaul, who died Sept. 5th; John Livingston, who died Sept. 10th and M. J. McPhaul, who died Oct. 23rd, 1920, therefore, be it resolved:

1st. That we place on record our appreciation of the lives and services of these deceased comrades, who after responding to the call of country, served faithfully during the war, and after peace was declared took up the task in rebuilding the wasted country, in which undertaking they labored earnestly up to the time death terminated their earthly existence, and they answered their last roll call.

2. That while we mourn their departure, we humbly bow to the will of God, expressing our faith in His divine wisdom and rule.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy be sent to relatives of the deceased comrades, and a copy be sent Hoke County Journal for publication.

Union Services.

The union Thanksgiving services will be held next Thursday, the 25th, in the Baptist church. Envelopes will be provided for a contribution for the several orphanages, and every one is expected to contribute at least as

A Card of Thanks.

For such helpful kindness and so many acts of love and expressions of sympathy during our recent sore bereavement, we desire to thank our friends. We thank each from the depth of our hearts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blue,
Lacy F. Clark.

Pay Your Taxes.

I will meet the taxpayers of Hoke County at the times and places named below for the purpose of collecting State, School and County taxes for the year 1920. One per cent. will be deducted from the net amount, if paid during November, so please meet me and get your receipts: Montrose Wednesday, Nov. 17, from 9 a. m. till 12 m. Ashley Heights Wed., Nov. 17, from 2 p. m. till 5 p. m. Bowmore Thursday, Nov. 18 Allendale Friday, Nov. 19. Antioch Saturday, Nov. 20. Dundarrach Mon., Nov. 22nd, from 9 a. m. till 12 m. Arabia Monday, Nov. 22nd, from 2 p. m. till 5 p. m.

EDGAR HALL,
Sheriff.

McGill and McNeill have moved into their new brick store, and it is a real nice place.

The Bank of Hoke has had a larger vault put in and refurnished, and refurnished the interior of the building and now it's more commodious and beautiful.

President Wilson has proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 25th, as a day of thanksgiving, with the request that people turn aside from their daily avocations to return thanks to God for the manifold blessings of which they are daily recipients.

LOCAL NEWS

This weather will cause the death of many a porker.

Special Fur Sale on this week at McLaughlin Co. See ad.

The Baptist State Convention is in session in Asheville.

Mr. Luke Bethune and all his family have been sick with bad colds.

The cold weather comes with a great part of the cotton crop in the field.

Little Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Cole, has been quite sick.

Dr. A. A. McFadyen gave us the most interesting Missionary address at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. It has been our privilege to hear.

Snow in many sections of the town the first of the week.

Mr. J. W. Moore spent some days here recently on business.

Rev. J. J. Masend, of Selma, was a guest of friends in Raeford last week.

Mr. H. McArthur, proprietor of the Southern Hotel in Aberdeen, spent Monday in town.

Mr. W. H. Andrews is now with his son, Mr. G. D. Andrews of Rockwell, and quite sick, we are sorry to learn.

Chief and Mrs. R. B. Lindsay have moved from the Steele house to the Gatlin cottage on Stewart street.

HOKE SUPERIOR COURT CIVIL CALENDAR November Term, 1920.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 1

- No. 603. In re: M J McPhaul Will. S & McQ for caveators. C & L and McI, L & P for respondents.
- No. 475. Jacob Blue v Flor. Blue. S & McQ for plaintiff. G B P for defendant.
- No. 481. Jones v A C L R R Co. H W B W and G B P for plaintiff. McL, V, McL and S and S and G and C & L for defendant.
- No. 489. Martin McPhatter v Octavia W. C & L for plaintiff. H W B W and G B P for defendant.
- No. 521. S & McQ and H W B W for plaintiff. S B McL for defendant.
- No. 522. Stephen Putney Shoe Co. v T L Blue. H W B W for plaintiff. S & McQ for defendant.
- No. 528. Angus Carmichael v Nettie Moody et al. S & McQ and H W B W for plaintiff. C & L for defendants.
- No. 530. Red Springs Trading Co v Walter Vample. McL, V, McL and S for plaintiff. S & McQ for defendant.
- No. 550. Flora Anne Brown v Warren Strickland. McL, L and P for plaintiff. McL, V, McL and S & McQ for defendant.
- No. 551. J A McVicker et al v C K Jackson. S and M for plaintiffs. C & L and S & McQ for defendant.
- No. 560. K G McRae v D D McRae. H W B W for plaintiff. C & L for defendant.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2

- No. 568. A J Fuller v A & R Ry Co. H W B W for plaintiff. S & McQ for defendant.
- No. 520. J W Johnson v C S Bennett. H W B W for plaintiff. G B R for defendant.
- No. 575. Mary A McRae v Jno Hines. S & McQ for plaintiff. ——— for defendant.
- No. 576. J C Thomas v J C Cope. McL, V, McL and S and S & McQ for plaintiff. McL, L & P and C & L for defendant.
- No. 577. Geo W Cox v Mack McPhatter et ux. S & McQ for plaintiff. S B McL for defendants.
- No. 581. McLaughlin Co v Jno Covington et ux. C & L for plaintiff. H W B W for defendant.
- No. 588. Wm. L Bethune v A C Bethune. C & L for plaintiff. ——— for defendant.
- No. 595. T J McGill, Agt, v Alice Graham. G B R for plaintiff. S & McQ for defendant.
- No. 600. W L Moore v W H McArthur et ux. C & L for plaintiff. S & McQ for defendant.
- No. 602. Mary J McNeill v Jas A McNeill et al. C E W and G B R for plaintiff. C & L for defendants.

Mrs. Lacy Clark.

(Mrs. Janie McK. Harrington.)

Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill, John McNeill, Mr. D. J. McNeill and the correspondent went to Raeford on Thursday to be present at the funeral services of Mrs. Lacy Clark, who before her marriage was Miss Bess Blue of Raeford. A lovely character, sweet and gentle, she was much beloved by all who knew her. In the hours of her great physical sufferings, she rejoiced in her Savior, saying her sufferings were nothing to what He suffered on the cross to give her immortal life. When the cold hand of death was upon her, she spoke comforting words to her relatives and her friends who were at her bedside. She said she was happy to go to a better world that was free from pain, suffering and sorrow, to a land where there were no partings, and to her mother said, "Just think, mamma, it will be forever there." Her pastor, Rev. W. C. Brown of Raeford, said that he visited her to comfort and sustain her in the hour of death, and that he himself came away comforted and much strengthened by her beautiful faith and the love and trust she manifested in a crucified Christ. The funeral services were conducted at her home. The room in which the casket containing her beautiful body rested was literally banked with floral offerings of the most beautiful and elaborate designs. The casket was covered with hand bouquets of the choicest of flowers, tied with long streams of tulle. Beautiful in life, she was beautiful in death. She sang softly, "Asleep in Jesus," and "No Night There." She leaves a husband and little four-year-old daughter, Jennie McNeill Clark; also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blue; three sisters, Mrs. N. B. Blue, Mrs. Pelham Covington and Miss Eunice Blue. Two brothers, Messrs. John and Daniel Blue, all of Raeford, besides a host of relatives and friends, who will ever love and rever the memory of one whose life was always cheer and sunshine.

Calmly she faded as fades the summer
Sweetly she whispered, soon I'll be there.

Calm as the evening,

Clear as the morning,

Bright hopes of glory

To her were given.

Earth scenes were fading,

Angels were singing,

Said she at parting,

Meet me in Heaven.

So 'twas she faded,

As fades the summer,

Sweetly she whispered

Meet me in Heaven.

—Moore County News.

Rev. B. P. Robinson preached his last sermon for the conference year Sunday night, and this week he attends the North Carolina Conference in Rocky Mount. It is the general desire that Mr. Robinson be returned to Raeford. He just suits us.

STOLEN—A red three speeded new Chief bicycle, stolen from porch at Make McKinnon's house Wednesday night of last week. Reward for return. DAVID MCKINNON. Raeford, N. C.

McNeill Grocery Co. News Items.

A NIPPING FROST, COLDER WEATHER. You will need more and better things to eat. Here's a list of good things for you:

Fresh fish and oysters Friday and Saturday.

Fresh pork sausage daily. Kingans country style, hams and bacon.

Tarbell's best cream cheese. Melrose Whitehouse and Sunflower flour, no better at any price.

Log cabin pure maple syrup. Pillsbury pancake flour. Ontario buckwheat flour.

Whitecap, Whitehouse and Sunbeam corn.

Post Toasties. Covington's very best fancy molasses.

Pickled pig feet, salt mullets. Corby's light and dark fruit cake.

Corby's coconut and chocolate layer cakes, nut cakes, orange cakes, plain cake, marble raisin cake, citron cake. Fresh Daily.

Corby's fresh bread daily. Corby's fresh rolls Saturday. Dromidary dates, seeded raisins, coconuts, apples, bananas, apples of the best quality.

Brazil nuts, fancy budded walnuts in transit. Also cranberries. Fresh celery daily.

McNEILL GROCERY CO. The home of good things to eat. PHONE 44. (Adv.)

Who Are More Thrifty— Men or Women?

Some say that women are more thrifty than men. We do not know about this. It is very much like saying that women are more honest than men. Nobody knows and we don't think such questions as these will ever really be decided.

The thrift proclivity is not influenced by anything that is not peculiar to either sex, in our opinion.

Any man or woman with a brain and a backbone can be thrifty. Any thinking person can see the desirability of being thrifty, and any person with vim and self-control can be thrifty—man or woman, boy or girl.

The Bank of Hoke
Raeford, N. C.