Confederate Veterans' Reunion

The Confederate Veterans' reunion, which will be held at Dismal Swamp, August 5th, which is Friday of next week, is being held in preparation for this occasion, as it is a matter of general concern to the people in all parts of the county.

The Confederate Veteran will not be here to cause pleasure or annoy a great while longer, and we are sure most of us would like to spread sunshine along his pathway whenever possible.

We want everybody in the county to attend, and bring a big hamper full of provisions. Don't forget it, but begin to get ready. A good program will be prepared and published next week.

Co-Operative Marketing

The meeting held in the courthouse last Saturday afternoon was well attended, the house was packed full, and all listened with rapt attention to the splendid speech on co-operative marketing by Dr. Taylor of Raleigh, who made a good speech.

There will be a speaking on Co-operative Marketing at practically every white school house in the county Thursday night and Friday night. The very best local talent, preachers, lawyers, farmers and business men will speak Thursday at 8 o'clock at: Allendale, Antioch, B. Y. Branch, Montrose, Glen Echo, Rockfish, Aberdeen Chapel, Arden, and Danderrach.

Friday evening at 8 o'clock at: Howell, Bethel, Plainview.

Remember the dates, Thursday, July 28th, and Friday, July 29th, at 8 p. m.

Sergeant Ellis W. Williamson.

The remains of Sergeant Ellis W. Williamson, who was mortally wounded in action in France during the World War and who died of his wounds at a base hospital October 15th, 1918, were buried in Troy last Saturday, Rev. B. P. Robinson of Raeford, the young man's pastor before he entered the military service, conducted the funeral.

Sergeant Williamson was one of four young men from Hoke county, who made the supreme sacrifice for his country, and was as nearly a model man as one could select. He was a Mason, an Odd Fellow and a Woodman. He was buried with Masonic Honors by Troy Lodge, No. 309, assisted by several brethren from Raeford. A number of other friends from Raeford attended the funeral.

It is a lamentable fact that on any and all markets that have opened tobacco does not bring an average more than half as much as it did last year.

The modern dance as danced, if danced it is, at some of the resorts in this section is becoming obnoxious to the more refined lovers of the pastime.

The cotton market broke all to fenders the first of the week. Guess the speculators are rejoicing in the hope of a complete victory. But you wait. This is once we hope they are to meet disappointment.

Pastor R. G. Kendrick will preach at the Baptist church in Raeford next Sunday morning; at Rockfish at 3:30 p. m. and at Red Springs at 8 p. m. His subject at 11 a. m. will be; Man Indispensable to God. The public cordially invited.

Some gentleman, or lady, or other good soul, left four fine watermelons in this office last Saturday during the editor's absence. We have no idea who it was, but the giver has our profound thanks just the same.

We had the nicest kind of a time at the picnic at Aberdeen Chapel last Thursday. We had a big crowd, a sumptuous dinner, and the young people had the chance of their lives all afternoon and made good use of it. The editor ate plenty, and a very fine watermelon each for himself and Preacher Brown were presented us by our good friend Chisholm.

Co-operative marketing will honestly managed, prove to be the solution of the cotton growers' problems. It will enable a man who makes the cotton have a say-so in what he gets for the stuff he makes. The W. Finance Corporation promises to see that plenty of money is available through loans from the Reserve Banks, just the way. The Journal has insisted upon now for months.

Statement Mothers' Club

(Special to The Journal)
Having heard that money was being made among those who are not connected with Mothers' Club as to the disposition of money raised by the we think it fitting to make following statement:

All money raised by the Minstrel, given two years ago. The Woman's Wedding Community Sing, and Thumb Wedding has been deposited in the Bank of Raeford.

The money from the Minstrel, given two years ago, was used for a safe and sane apparatus for Modern Playground. A big part of this apparatus, which was ordered from Spaulding by Raeford Hardware Company, has come and has been paid for. However, chains and bars necessary for the construction have delayed getting these put up. Mr. Sexton has the order in for these. Mr. Austin has the lumber sawed, and we hope to get this up ready for use by the opening of school.

This playground equipment is the best that can be bought and is very expensive. What we are getting now is merely a beginning, and we intend fitting up a playground that will do justice to a town five times the size of Raeford. It takes time and the people must be patient.

We also gave the big boys money for their basket ball suits.

The proceeds of the Tom Thumb Wedding are to purchase new books for the school library, which will be selected by a committee capable of selecting good books.

We are also conducting and financing a children's story hour which is held every Friday afternoon, and to which all the small children in town are welcome.

We hope to give more entertainments in the future for the benefit of the above causes, and will appreciate the co-operation of the entire town in our efforts.
