Raeford, N. C., July 28, 1921.

If it costs out of proportion to the benefits being derived, better invest less in that enterprise. This defines our attitude toward both schools and roads.

We should feel a just pride in the citizenship of Hoke. The wave of crime sweeping the world since the great war has not effected the tranquility of a homogeneous people.

Currency is the blood of the business of the country, the treasury department is its heart, the banks serve as valves, ventrecal, arteries, capillaries, and veins, and if any poisonous substances, like greed, gets into this system so as to impair them they cease to function well, and that is the trouble now.

That there is near distress, a semi-famine, is becoming a well known and an acknowledged fact now. President Harding has become alarmed by reports of suffering through out the country, and wants an investigation. The Journal has been sounding the alarm for months past, and is a fool, a calamity howler for his pains. Right here in this country people are not well fed, that is to say many are underfed.

The malefactors of great wealth are responsible for this "semi-famine" conditions we are having, but it may be so arranged through the government to supply the money needed by the country independent of the great banks and corporations. The War Finance Corporation promises money to aid farmers to gather and market their crops, through the North Carolina Co-operative Marketing Association, provided that organization gets well established everywhere, but only those connected with this organization can effect a change

There is no substitute for Federal mileage any more than there is for Federal quality.

For long mileage means quality above all things.

—And what is more important to you—long mileage means greater economy.

Motorists are learning that mediocrity does not pay, and thousands are finding Federal Tires are the best tire bargains they can buy because they are bargains in mileage.

In all our dealings we cultivate a spirit of frankness and cordiality, believing the better we serve the better we succeed.
