

HOKE COUNTY JOURNAL

VOL. XXI. NO. 4.

RAEFORD, NORTH CAROLINA. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1925.

$1.50 Per Year.

Hoke Superior Court.

The grand jury finished its duties in one day, and was discharged for the term Monday evening, April 13th.

There were only a few appealed cases from Recorder's court. Quite a number of important civil cases, some tough ones that have been on docket a long time were tried at this term.

Judge Grady made a favorable impression while here for his fairness and ability.

Graves vs. McMillan was tried, Graves won, got a judgment for $256.80 That had been on the docket ten years.

Walker vs. Lester, another old case, judgment for plaintiff. An appeal was taken.

Special Easter Service at Sanatorium.

Sanatorium, April 15th.—The Reverend Euclid McWhorter of Aberdeen conducted special Easter services in the auditorium at Sanatorium Sunday afternoon. He was heard by an appreciative audience of Sanatorium folk.

Where the "Ad" Pays.

One step won't take you far.

You've got to keep on walking.

One word won't tell folk who you are.

You've got to keep on talking

One inch won't make you very tall.

You've got to keep on grow ing.

One little ad won't do at all,

You've got to keep them going.

Because

A constant drop of water wears away the hardest stone.

The constant gnawing tower masticates the toughest bone.

The constant cooing lover carries off the blushing maid.

And the constant advertiser is the one that gets the trade.

Mr. Arthur Morgan, a student at the University, spent several days at home last week.

Mr. Alex Patterson, a student at Annapolis, visited his parents. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Patterson last week.

A hailstorm at Atkinson, Pender county, last Friday did lots of damage to strawberries. Pender is the leading strawberry producing county.

A LOSING EMPIRE.

Gen. Walter A. Harris of Macon, "startled the Kiwanis Club of Jackson," by the bold declaration that Georgia is "no longer the Empire State of the South." He maintained that on the one side Florida had grown to be an Empire State and on the other side North Carolina has come in to the title. The Augusta Herald takes issue with the general and quotes a speech of "a prominent Georgian at a dinner party in New York," in evidence, and its remarks directed to the pessimistic general might seem to indicate that The Herald regards him as the Bailey of Georgia. It is much pleasanter to hear talk of the consolidated Georgia cow "whose milk would float a cargo of cheese and butter from Savannah to New York," while she grazed on the vegetables at the equator, switching icicles off the North Pole with her tail, meanwhile. Georgia is the same big State as ever, and it has the same handicap of politics. If she proposes to hold to her title as an Empire, she must first get rid of a surplus of the politics that scotch.—Charlotte Observer.

It may be the Budget Commission will save enough off of others to pay their own expenses.

We never have been able to see why it was necessary to pay so much for the survey of roads, or streets.

If our people had a few strawberries to sell they would bring in a little cash. Don't know either since freight rates have gone up, it takes nearly all of anything to pay transportation.

The Carolina Power & Light Co had a young man here last week to test light metres. We do not know how he found the metres, but we do know our light bills run up to from two to three times as much as they were a few years ago.

When ex-Governor Morrison managed to get a rehearing of the Jimison case before Recorder Williams in Charlotte last week, he had a judgment changed from 60 days on the roads to a fine of $500. As we see it, there wasn't much done for Jimison.

THE GREATEST OF ALL BRIDGES

The North Carolina highway contract included half a dozen bridges of the major type which made big draft on State funds. The first of these, completed three years ago, was the bridge over the Pee Dee, near Albemarle. But the Pee Dee gave more trouble further down before it leaves the State between Wadesboro and Rockingham, and that called for another bridge a little larger than the one further inland. Again the same stream under the name of the Yadkin, called for a bridge out from Salisbury-Spencer. It was "down east," however, that bridge construction developed in to the monumental. The structure across the Roanoke, at Williamston, was finished with a big celebration, two years ago, and at that time the matter of bridging the wider Chowan, which yet blocked the way into the northeastern corner of the State, was of vexed discussion. Finally, the determination to devote $600,000 to conquest of the Chowan was arrived at. Then, as in the case of the Buster Boyd bridge, nearer home, arose a fight over location of the bridge. This matter has just been settled by the State Highway Commission, and the almost direct route to Edenton is selected, over the longer route to Colerain, in the upper corner of Bertie County.

Some of the ablest legal talent of that corner of big lawyers was engaged on each side, but the largest pull was exerted by Mr. P. H. Williams of Elizabeth City, who exercised the greater that he was framer of the bill under which the bridge was created. Construction of the bridge over the Chowan opens all that section of the State north of Albemarle Sound and east of the Chowan into interior North Carolina and provides for the functioning of the Williamston bridge.—Charlotte Observer.

Death of Mrs. Annie Black McFadyen.

(Contributed)

The funeral services for Mrs. McFadyen, who was born on mid ocean on May 15, 1838, were held at Longstreet church 17, being conducted by the Rev. R. A. McLeod, assisted by the Rev. W. M. Fairley, D. D. Mrs. McFadyen died in her 87th year at her home near Vass, N. C.

Mrs. McFadyen was a daughter of the late John Lindsay, a native of Scotland.

On Aug. 29, 1860, she was married to Dougald McFadyen, and to them were born seven sons and four daughters, all of whom survive her, except one daughter, who died a few years ago. She leaves 56 grand children and eleven great grand children.

Mrs. McFadyen was for more than sixty years a faithful member of Longstreet Presbyterian church.

Pallbearers were grand sons of the deceased, J. S. McFadyen, T. D. Clark, Bill McFadyen, Dougald Graham, J. M. Clark and Watson McFadyen.

It is not against the law to fish with hook and line, but it is against the law to catch trout between April 15th and July 1st.

Messrs. J. E. Conoly and G. W. Cox attended the State convention of Woodmen of the World in Wilmington last week, and declare they never had as good time before in their lives.

Lime and Cement at McLauchlin Co. Hardware.

Mrs. B. McLauchlin has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Brown of Statesville.

Mrs. B. Thomas, who recently underwent a serious operation in High Point's hospital in Fayetteville, is improving nicely.

The R. & R. have now a motor bus for passenger traffic from that was once bought for use on the Fayetteville street car line.

Remember April 15th, 1915, ten years ago. McPhaul Bros. lost their cotton warehouse and 200 bales of cotton by lightning? And it grew dark as night at 5 p. m.

"A wild ride in an auto ended in a flower bed," says a news dispatch from Hawarden. More frequently they end under flower-beds.—Cherokee (Iowa) Chief.

One improvement we must brag about; There has been no complaint of the water being out in Raeford in several months. To somebody we extend congratulations.

Mrs. T. B. Upchurch and Mr. Tommie Upchurch are back from Philadelphia, where the latter was treated by a specialist, and we are glad to learn that he is very much improved.

We inadvertently omitted at the time to mention the reelection of Mrs. J. A. McGoogan Secretary of the 11th district U. D. C. organization. The next district meeting will be held in Statesville, N. C.

The meeting of the Raeford Presbyterian association and the Charlotte Ministerial association, protesting against the teaching of evolution in the schools of North Carolina, were adopted by the Presbytery, representing 89 churches and about 8,000 church members.

The resolution, in part, follows: "The Mecklenburg Presbytery endorses the stand taken by the Presbyterian ministers of Charlotte against certain poisonous articles which have recently appeared in The Journal of Social Forces, published at the State University, and resolves as follows:

"1—That if the church is not to teach religion in the state schools, then the schools themselves should not teach infidelity."

The 10 other subdivisions included the 10 resolutions adopted at the meeting of the Charlotte Ministerial association at the regular meeting last Monday week and published in The Observer of Tuesday week.

McLean is Licensed.

S. B. McLean, of Charlotte, who moved to Kingston avenue from his farm near Steel Creek in January, was licensed to preach by the Presbytery. Mr. McLean was formerly a lawyer and solicitor at Maxton. He is a member of the Westminster church.

Notice to Every Voter in Town of Raeford, N. C.

The registration books will be open and in possession of Mr. A. B. McGill at the court house from now until April 25th, and every person eligible to vote for town officers in the coming election is required and urged to go and register as soon as possible. Those who do not register will not be eligible to vote.

J. E. CONOLY, Mayor.

A. D. GORE, Clerk.

Revival Services.

Rev. Watson M. Fairley, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church, will conduct a series of evangelistic services beginning next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Through the week there will only be one service each day at 8 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Junius Smith of Stem, N. C., will lead the singing.

The public generally, particularly members of the other churches, are invited to cooperate in the meetings, which end the 1st Sunday in May with the observance of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Choir practice Saturday night at 8 o'clock. Everybody come.

We are told Mr. J. A. McGoogan of Raeford is managing Mr. Hiram Kirkpatrick's mayoralty campaign in Fayetteville with fine prospects of winning.

Notice to People of Raeford.

The following ordinance is enacted by the town authorities of Raeford:

It shall be unlawful to use or maintain any residence or other building in the city of Raeford which is located on a lot abutting on the city sewer line, said residence or building being not more than 200 feet from the same, where one or more persons live or congregate, unless such residence or building be provided with such flush closet or closets connected with said sewer, provided water is available from the city main within 200 feet from said residence of building.

That all ordinances or parts of ordinances previously enacted which are in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

3. That this ordinance shall be enforced from the date of its passage.

4. Violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of $5.00 for the first day and $1.00 for each additional day the violation is continued, dated from the time specified in official notice from the city.

Passed and adopted this 2nd day of March 1925.

Signed: J. E. CONOLY,

Mayor.

Signed: A. D. GORE,

Clerk.

Raeford, N. C., April 13, 1925.

Another car of Galvanized Roofing just in at McLauchlin Co. Hardware.

I am offering a pair of registered spotted Poland China hogs, just what you need to start a first class herd. I will trade one or both of these for beef cattle or milk cows.

F. G. Leach.

Full blooded Poland China pigs. F. G. Leach.

Stores Robbed in Carthage.

(From Moore County News) The stores of J. G. Parks, A. H. Hurwitz and E. Ginsburg were robbed Thursday night of last week. No clue was left that could lead to the identity of the sackers. The burglars seemed bent on getting cash, as cash was taken from each one of the stores robbed. Mr. Parks reports that $47 was taken from his cash drawer.

Notice of Election.

An election of mayor and five commissioners for the town of Raeford, N. C., will be held Tuesday, May 5th, 1925.

A. B. McGill is registrar and his books will be open for the registration of voters at the court house from now until Saturday, April 18th, 1925. Poll holders are A. B. McFadyen, and D. S. McKeithan.

Signed: J. E. CONOLY,

Mayor.

Signed: A. D. GORE,

Raeford, N. C., April 13, 1925.

Get your Cotton Hoes and Cotton Sweeps from McLauchlin Co. Hardware.

One five room bungalow going at a bargain. Terms to suit you and at a price that will pay you 10 per cent. on your investment.

F. G. Leach.

Get the best, The Caldwell Lawn Mower from McLauchlin Co. Hardware.

Pure Bred Plymouth Rock Eggs, Parks and Holtermans Strain, 15 for $1.00.

J. K. McNeill.

Mrs. E. R. Williamson is running Hemstitching Machine and making buttons to order, also doing expert dress making. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction.

At Nisbet & Howell's Store, Raeford, N. C.

FOR SALE, or will trade for beef cattle, three first class Jersey milk cows.

F. G. Leach.

Another lot SURE FIT Caps for Men and Boys. Baucum's Cash Store.

I am always in the market if you've got a bargain to offer, it doesn't differ what it is.

F. G. Leach.

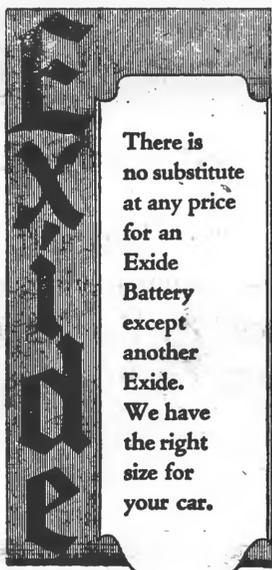

J. H. BLUE

ENGINEERING AND SURVEYING Raeford, N. C. Phone 253.

NOTICE.

To avoid having your property advertised, settle your taxes at once.

E. R. WILLIAMSON, Tax Collector for Town Raeford, N. C.

There is no substitute at any price for an Exide Battery except another Exide. We have the right size for your car.

Main Street Filling Station.

WE RECEIVE THE BASE BALL SCORES

EVERY EVENING

Over an

Atwater Kent Radio

Stop by and see them

RAEFORD DRUG COMPANY

Prescription Druggists Phone 233