Hoke county has good roads, or roads that might be made good by a very little improvement. They just need a little attention they don't get.

We can bear with all human weaknesses better than this use of rouge and lipstick habit good looking women have of making chorus girls of themselves.

Outside the Bible where will you find a standard in equity justice and morality? There is no other basis in law and order upon which civilization is founded

We like music. We like vocal music best of all. but this strained, discordant, operatic singing is the most disgusting noise we have ever heard, and we have heard many dogs howl.

We all like to see officers diligent in duty, but some of them are a little too much diligent. That officer who shot and killed that lawyer near Raleigh last week was overdoing the thing, and we heard of a bunch of officers surrounding an innocent travelling man a few days ago, covering him with guns and searching his car for blockade liquor, when there was no excuse in the world to suspect him, except that he was a stranger. Diligence is somewhat overdone occasionally.

Beginning Saturday, June 13th and running through Saturday, June 20th, we will hold a Red Arrow Bargain Sale representing our first anniversary. For this anniversary sale we are offering you some real bargains of new seasonable goods that are used in the home every day.

A good many editors who are advising farmers to live at home have never known what it costs nor what problems confront those they advise. Advice is like castor oil—easy to give, but hard to take. When a man is in debt, and knows of nothing else that will settle his indebtedness, he is likely to plant more cotton than corn, regardless of good advice.

Don't forget the time and the place for the Red Arrow Anniversary Sale June 13th and to 20th inclusive. Every purchase must be satisfactory or your money refunded.
