That fellow Darrow is no doubt an intellectual giant, but so is his father, Beelzebub.

Honor bright. A conscience void of offense toward God and man is the greatest riches any human can possess

There should be more repealing of law, and a simplifying of those left remaining. Legal lore is too complicated.

No, the fight against organic evolution will not cease because of the death of peerless leader. "The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge."

Farmers have their eyes too much on money making and too little on a good living. We believe they would succeed in their first wish if they made it more incidental.

Well, it's a man's job to establish a religion of state in this country, where diversion into sects is more the rule than unity. Why ring in an alarm on this subject?

We need more application to study. People are not as universally well posted as they might and should be. Allow no time wasted. Read. Study Post yourself each and all.

To force a ruinous doctrine up on the people while they protest, and at the same time make them pay a burdensome tax rate to meet the expense, looks like intolerance, and it is just that.

But a small portion of the teaching force in North Carolina, in either schools or churches, are ready to cast aside the Bible and surrender their faith in revealed religion, so we are not discouraged but battle for truth in hopefulness.

The people should and would be enthused and elated over an educational system that means the elevation of the whole race, an increase in their capacity for enjoyment and usefulness, but for the injection into this system evolutionary hypotheses that may result in the debasing of humanity and will inevitably result in the destruction of the Christian religion, but civilization as
