We have the finest tobacco land in this part of the State. As good yields of cotton are made in Hoke as you know of anywhere, and we make fine wheat, corn and oats. We have a fine soil. We have a good citizenship. With good seasons we prosper

THE REASON WHY.

The editor of The Journal has known for years that the teaching of organic evolution is and has been attacking and destroying the integrity of the Bible and consequently undermining the Christian religion, and that the object of the teaching of hypotheses hoking man with the lower order of life has been, and still is inspired of the devil.

That man Scopes, who was indicted and convicted in Dayton, Tenn., recently for violating a law against teaching organic evolution in that State is now petitioning the courts to enjoin the officials of that State to prevent the enforcement of the law, says in his petition:

"Your petitioner further alleges that the theory of evolution denies and is in conflict with the story of divine creation of man as taught in the Bible, and your petitioner further alleges that it is not part of his duty as instructor in science, to concern himself with anything except the conscientious and accurate imparting to his pupils of such knowledge as has been achieved by mankind in the various fields covered by his duties as instructor and in such views and theories as are earnestly entertained and seriously received by respectable and conscientious workers in the fields of science." It cannot longer be doubted. The objective of these great scholars, as they represent themselves to be, is to remove a barrier: "The carnal mind is enmity against God," so they would destroy faith in the revealed Word.

Not so much to advance knowledge as the satisfaction of winning a world-old struggle—the Devil against God.

The only advancement the human race has made in all history has been made while they have followed the teachings of the inspired Word, and it has been the strongest desire of man to follow the inclinations of his own will, which has been to evil, and evil continually. This is no new thing.

There are those who say that organic evolution is not a fit subject for legislation, while it is a fact that this teaching is mothering agnosticism, skepticism, atheism, which in turn, breeds criminality, all forms of disrespect for law and order, and will result in anarchy, and result finally in the destruction of civilization.

At the resort places the girls wear their bathing suits, even when they are not going bathing at all; ministerial associations in cities are endeavoring to stop the fool critters by law.

In the olden days young people got married, and the pair worked together for a start in life, but it's different in these times; if a start is made, it's before.
