

Locals.

Mrs. D. W. Riddle of Red Springs died last week, aged 56 years.

There have been no peach bloom so far, but this weather will bring 'em out.

Mrs. D. P. McDiarmid of Antioch underwent an operation at Cumberland General hospital in Fayetteville last week, and is recovering nicely.

A truck from Fort Bragg loaded with hay and six soldiers turned bottom upward off the embankment at Rockfish creek Monday and one of the soldiers was caught beneath the truck and pretty badly injured.

A colored man turned his Ford over some three miles out on the Fayetteville road Saturday evening and the car was left for a short while, and everything detachable about it was stolen. Roguery is getting to be serious around Raeford, particularly the taking of car parts.

Notice of Land Sale.

Under and by virtue of an order of the superior court of Hoke County, North Carolina, made in the special proceedings entitled John Cain, Adm'r. of the estate of W. C. Carter, dec'd., vs. Oscar L. Bristow et al., docketed in the office of the clerk of said court, the undersigned commissioner will, on the 10th day of March 1926, at noon, at the court house door in Raeford, N. C., offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash that certain tract or lot of land lying and being in Raeford township, said county and State, adjoining the land of E. B. McNeill et als., and being on the South side of the present highway between Raeford and Aberdeen, described particularly as follows:

Beginning at a stake in the south edge of old Capitol highway, also corner of J. C. Thomas' land S. 3.30 E. 448 ft. to a stake in the edge of the A. & R. R. right-of-way; thence with said railroad S. 61.50 E. 1634 ft. to a stake in the edge of said right-of-way; thence N. 64 15 E. 87 ft. to a stake, corner of lot No. 10; thence N. 3.30 W. 510 ft. to a stake in edge of said highway; thence with said highway S. 86.30 W. 200 ft. to the beginning, containing 2.17 acres, more or less. This description embraces lots No. 11 and 12 of H. M. Lilly plat of Sept. 1914; same appears of record in Book of Deeds No. 18 at page 102 of Hoke county registry.
