NOTICE! The late decision of the Supreme court to the effect that the local laws that allowed counties a right to charge non residents a larger fee for the privilege of hunting than is charged residents of the county is unconstitutional, doesn't effect the law ownership at all, and he who hunts on another man's land without a written permit is guilty of trespass.

Sale of Valuable Farm Property.

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by O. H. Moffitt and wife, Bertha Moffitt on the 11th day of September, 1925, and recorded in book of Mortgage 46, page 516 we will on Saturday, the 15th day of December, 1926, at 12 o'clock noon at the court house door in Raeford, Hoke County, sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder the following land, to-wit:

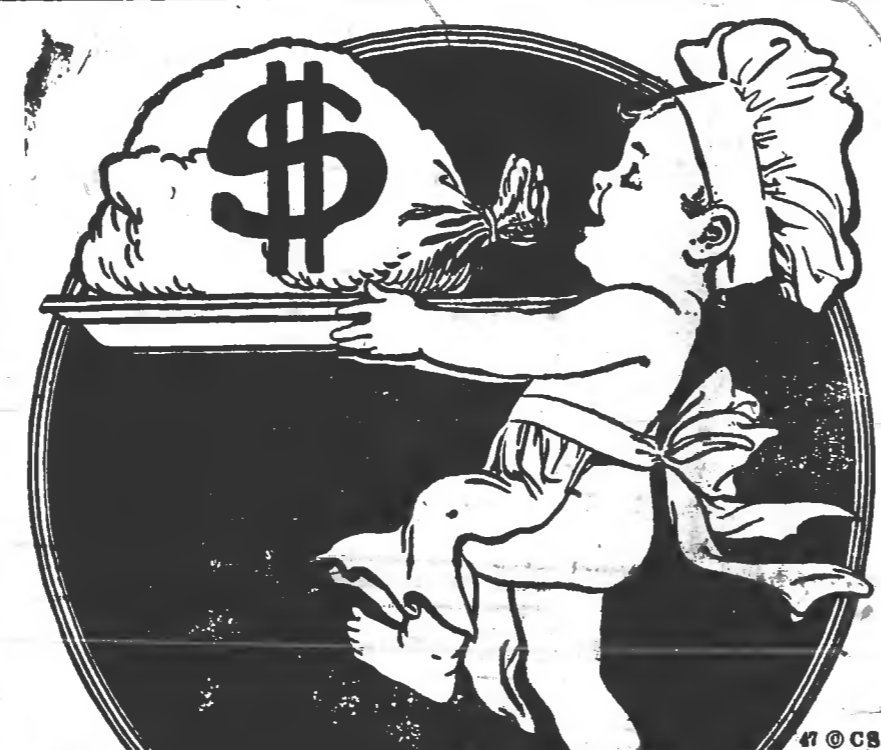

Two certain tracts of land in Quewhiffe Township, Hoke County, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of John Blue Estate, E. E. Staley and others, and more particularly described as follows, viz:

First Tract: Beginning at a stake in the channel of Quewhiffe Creek about 40 feet above the Plank Road Bridge; runs thence S. 87.22 E 569ft to a stake, M. C. Brown's northwest corner; thence S. 37 1/2 W. 42.03 chs. to a stake in John Blue's line; thence with said John Blue's line to the channel of Quewhiffe Creek; thence up the various courses of said channel to the beginning, the same containing 105.50 acres.

Second Tract: Beginning at a stake, J. R. Lucas' NE. corner; and running thence N. 76 1/2 E 3283 feet to a stake in the South edge of the Chickens Road; thence S. O deg. and 48 min. W. 3335 feet to a stake and pointers in the old John Blue line; thence with said Blue line 2167 feet to a stake; thence N. 20 W. 2300 feet to a stake; thence N. 47 1/2 W. 453 feet to beginning, containing 171 acres

This sale is made by reason of the failure of O. H. Moffitt and wife, Bertha Moffitt to pay off and discharge the indebtedness secured by said deed of trust to the North Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank, Durham.

This the 3rd day of November, 1926.

Nature Teaches

All around us every day we see the lessons Nature teaches.

Many men and women hesitate to start to SAVE because they are compelled to start "SMALL."

YET all things have small beginnings. Time is rapid in its flight---and if never start there can be no growth.

Start saving today---then continue to add week by week. Soon you will understand how the "mighty oak from the little acorn grow.
