Mr. McDougald was a director in the Sea Island Bank in this city and held various stock cer tificates, which demonstrates that he was always ready to lend a helping hand wnen a new enterprise was started in this city.

It was his request that he be buried from the Presbyterian church and the funeral will be held there tomorrow afternoon Many friends of the family visit ed the home during the day Even negroes-young and oldcame and asked to look at him. He had no trouble with labor and to show his appreciation of this the organizations to which he was a member tendered the farm hands a sumptuous barbecue each year.

Besides his widow he is sur vived by three children, W. E. McDougald of Statesboro, Outand McDougald of Palatka, Fla., and Miss Ruth McDougald of this city. Also two sisters survive, Mrs. Colin Shaw of Statesboro Ga., and Mrs. R. L. Bethune o Raeford, N. C.

His friends cannot be number ed. In addition to the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county he was probably known to a majority of the big business men in Sevannah, having had large transactions in that city for years. -Savannah (Ga.) News

William L. Holliday Passes.

Mr. William Lauchlin Holliday a son of the late W. B. and Sa rah Ann Bethune Holliday, died at his home at Jackson Springs Wednesday evening, Dec. 1. at 5:40 o'clock, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with amazing patience and fortitude, and the end, the peaceful end, was more like wrapping his mantle about him and lying down to quiet sleep than any death we have ever witnessed, and with a smile he passed into the Great Beyond. Mr. Holliday was born on the farm now owned by Mr J. H. Sykes seven miles east of Raeford, in boyhood going with his father's family into that part of Richmond county now Scotland. In -arly manhood he spent a year in Boston, Ga., after which ne returned to Jackson Springs, where he made his home the remainder of his life. He was 64. • Mr. Holliday was twice married, first to Miss Ella Clark, who died in 1917; his second wife was Miss Pearl Johnson, who survives him, and whose fidelity and devotion to her afflicted husband could not have been surpassed A brother, Mr. A.
