Work, whistle, sing and try to trying. Do your best

The prognosticator say the prospects for good business in 1928 are bright, still prices de cline in everything.

It's a fact. Expenses must be reduced so taxes may be less.
 The commission seemed to have been running in reverse.

We hate to get all ailed up at the last minute when we are ready to go to press as we are this week. Fleishman's big ad came in late, so we have to add a little supplement—nothing to make a full page of. It's mes!

Mr. E. B. Wood of Rockfish was in town Tuesday. He thinks he will not rebuild until some time next summer.

Mr. A. J. Jordan of Allendale called to see us yesterday. He says he aint blue now, but his cheerfulness is not due to suc cessful cotton growing.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness sympathy and help during our recent sad bereavement, the death of our dear son.
 Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Henderson
