WE URGE PEOPLE TO VOTE.

We believe the readers of The Journal will bear out the statement that we have urged the people to attend the polls at the coming election, and vote. This is a right as well as a privilege, and more, it is a duty.

But we hear some people of the Ananias disposition say, or have been saying, that the editor has been persuading people to stay away from the polls, and not vote.

A man who says that kind of stuff just loves to lie, and is making such statements as the above from a love of lying. A man of that kind would have to be sent to a reform school a long time to develop into an Ananias. Their diabolism is anything but refreshing.

Hoke county has not expressed her full strength, not once, because the people have not voted in elections as they should have. We have two thousand voters, Democrats, in Hoke, and not over twelve hundred have voted in any election.

People should be allowed to vote as they please, unmolested, and that without criticism, but most of us criticize those who vote contrary to our wishes and that's mean, but we do it.

We would like to see the voters of Hoke more selfassertive.

Lawn Party.

Master Will Frank, little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wright, entertained a number of his little friends on the occasion of his 4th birthday. Tuesday afternoon a number of lawn games were enjoyed by all, after which Mrs. Wright served all the little guests with delicious icecream and cake.

Mrs. Emma McCrimmon.

Mrs. Emma McCrimmon, a widow lady, aged about 55 years, died at her home near town Monday afternoon, and her remains were interred in the McCrimmon cemetery Tuesday. Before marriage she was a Miss Kennedy, and was a good Christian woman.

Mrs. Covington Entertains.

An attractive party was given by Mrs. W. P. Covington at her home on Magnolia street Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Shivar, a guest of Mrs. J. S. Johnson.

The lovely home, with softly shaded lights and the glow of many colorful summer flowers, was an inviting scene to greet the eve as the guests entered.

Mrs. Covington was assisted in receiving by Mrs. M. L. McKelthan and Mrs. A. K. Currie.

Mr. J. S. Poole received prize for high score, a lovely picture. Low score prize went to Mrs. Daniel Blue, an attractive piece of pottery.

Mrs. Shivar was given a beautiful hand painted green chrysanthemum fruit knife.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. N. B. Blue, served a delectable fruit salad, marquerites and punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Entertains.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Johnson entertained at bridge Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in honor of their guest, Mrs. Shivar of Jacksonville, Fla.

The home was lovely with a profusion of bright summer flowers. The hostess served delightful refreshments after the game.

Mrs. Walker Entertains.

Mrs. J. W. Walker was hostess at bridge Friday evening complimenting Mrs. Shivar, who is the house guest of Mrs. J. S. Johnson.

The bowls and vases of bright summer flowers artistically arranged made the rooms unusually attractive.

High score prize, an attractive perfume atomizer fell to Mrs. C. E. Upchurch.

Mrs. Shivar, guest of honor, was presented with a dainty hand embroidered linen towel. Delicious home made cream, cake and salted nuts were served.
