

WOK COUNTY JOURNAL

Entered at the postoffice at Raeford N. C., as second-class matter

Published Weekly by
RAEFORD PUBLISHING CO.
D. SCOTT POOLE, Editor

Raeford, N. C., Dec 20, 1928.

If you can't be good, try not to be annoying. You can just be an old sour grouch with your mouth shut. Let it go at that.

Yes, taxes in Hoke are high, but you go find how the rate runs in adjoining counties, and see if you are not lucky to be a Hokite.

The tax commission will soon have a 650 page report ready for distribution. The editor's opinion is the state is being ruined by commissions.

It is a failure to pay notes given banks that break them. The failure of a bank speaks volumes against the community in which that bank was located.

The Salary and Wage commission, an organization planned by Governor McLean just after he was inaugurated, asks for increased powers. They want power to discharge employees.

If you have about all you need to live on, you do not require so much cash, but maybe, you have noticed that, and you already know that these people who have nearly everything they require have more cash on hand.

A seal on each letter helps many get better.

Cracker Jack is dressed up and priced down for Christmas.

It is everybody's fight. Buy tuberculosis seals and help win the fight.

The ads. in this week's paper are money savers to all readers of The Journal.

Read Thomas Grocery Co.'s ad, and then think of another like sale during holidays.

There is a good demand for poultry, and prices are as good as they have been in some years.

Hoke Drug Co. is well stocked on this sweetheart stuff, but they are prepared in other lines.

Special shipments of Christmas goods, sweetheart and otherwise, arriving at Raeford Drug Co.'s.

A. J. West, aged 18 years, of Rock Hill, S. C., fell from a load of hay and from injuries Friday.

We remember a good while back, but we never knew all the stores in a town to cut prices during a Christmas season before.

Mr. Israel Mann wishes all his friends in Raeford and Hoke county a merry Christmas and a happy new year. See his ad.

Officers Barrington and Lind say found a whiskey still and a lot of beer in the dwelling of Henry Bland, colored, who lives near town. Bland was arrested last Friday, and brought before Recorder Dickson Tuesday morning and given two years on the road. Such will stop 'em.
