BETTY'S WEDDING APPROACHING

Whole Town Fecited Over Event

It won't be long now, Until the wedding o' the pair, If Bobby knew his onions, He'd choose 'lectric chair.

They bought a clock and electric chafing dish, At the Raeford Hardware the other day, While Betty will do her cooking, The Florence oil stove way.

A pair of Florsheim shoes from Israel Mann's, Will adorn Bob's great big feet, While Brown Built slippers from Mann's store, Will keep Betty's ankles neat

No matter what they're needing, Cleaning, mending, pressing, They'll take it to Raeford Dry Cleaners, They're the secret of good dressing.

The Cabin will grease their car, And vulcanize their tires, This station does almost everything, The motorist requires,

And when Bobby enters business He'll deal with the Bank of Raeford, too, Cause banks with service like it, Are mighty, mighty few.

At the Ideal Market they'll buy pork sausage, And beefsteak nice and tender, And besides, young Betty's crazy Bout the service that they render.

At the Specialty Shop Betty will buy a hat, And accessories for each gown, It's well known that the Specialty Shop, Is the smartest store in town.

They'll drop into the Raeford Drug Co. for sundaes, And know they're made just right, At the Raeford soda fountain, Are refreshments that delight.

When it's wet and disagreeable, They'll ring up 243, They like the Thomas delivery, And they're obliging as can be. (Watch for Bob and Betty next week.)
