

MRS. LEWIS UPCHURCH AND MRS. ARTHUR MATHE-SON ARE HONOREES

Mrs. Lewis Upchurch and Mrs. Arthur Matheson, Jr., two very popular recent brides were again honored on Thursday afternoon when Mesdames Bob Lewis and Julian Johnson entertained them at the home of Mrs. Lewis. Tables were arranged for both bridge and rook. Those playing rook found their places in the sun parlor and those playing bridge were in the living room.

One can hardly imagine more beautiful flowers than those which were used to make lovely living room, dining room and sun parlor.

At the end of the game a salad plate with most delicious refreshments were served. A color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in the salad course. Mrs. John McGoogan won high score in bridge while Mrs. Hallie Gatlin won it in rook, both receiving prizes. Holder of low score in bridge was Mrs. E. B. Garrett. Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Johnson presented their honorees with pieces of linen.

FEW PEOPLE TOOK AFTER-NOON NAP SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McLauchlin make their children take a nap every Sunday afternoon when they are to go to church that night. The children have gotten the idea that only those who take an afternoon nap can go to church.

Last Sunday night at church the crowd was very small and one of the young chaps remarked to his mother that there were only a few who took their naps that afternoon.
