MRS. LEWIS MCBRAYER HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB WEDNESDAY EVENING

Mrs. Lewis McBryer gave a very attractive bridge party at her home at Timberland. At this time she honored her friend, Miss Mary Sprague, of Keeve, New Hampshire, who is on her way to St. Petersburg, Florida, for the winter.

The Hallowe'en idea was carried out in every detail of the party

The house was attractively decorated with pumpkin lanterns, black cats and hobgoblins. Unique score cards with the same motif were used. Five tables were arranged for the hostess from Raeford and Sanatorium. After the game Mrs. McBrayer, assisted by Mrs. Paul Mc Cain, served a dainty salad plate. The Hallowe'en suggestion was followed in the refreshments also. Mrs. C. D. Thomas, of Sanatorium, won first prize. Mrs. Pelham Covington second prize. Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Sanatorium, low score prize. Miss Sprague was presented with an attractive gift.

Enjoying this altogether delightful affair were. Miss Mary Sprague, honoree; Mesdames C. D. Thomas, W. G. Byerly, John S. Hooker and J. H. Williams of Sanatorium; Mesdames Clyde Covington, of Wagram; David Jester, of High Point, Harry Green, Crawford Thomas, Clyde Upchurch, Marshall Thomas, Lewis Upchurch, Benton Thomas, Bob Lewis, Julian Johnson, Fred Johnson, John Walker, Arthur Matheson, Paul Dickson and Pelham Covington, of Raeford.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club met Tuesday, October 15 with Mrs. R. B. Stewart on Fayetteville road, Mrs. E. B. Garrett, presiding. A few items of business were passed on by the club after which Mrs. W. L. Poole presented the program, "English Poetry Writers." Mrs. H. W. B. Whitley gave a paper on Alfred Noyes; Mrs. J. S. Johnson told something of John Mansfield; Mrs. Poole gave sketches from the writings of Robert Brooks.

Mrs. T. B. Upchurch, president of District No. 9, was asked by the chairman to tell the department of the district meeting in Lillington, October 13th. She reported a splendid meeting with good reports from nearly all the clubs in her district. She urged the women present to make the Raeford Woman's Club one of the strongest clubs in the ninth district this year.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. H. R. McLean and Mrs. G. W. Brown, served a sweet salad course to a large number of members and several guests.

RAEFORD, N. C.

Within the past three years citizens of Raeford have borrowed more than $100,000.00 from out of county concerns. Had 100 people carried 10 shares of installment stock each in this association all these loans could have been handled by this association, and at our present earning rate, this would have resulted in a net profit of $20,000.00 to Hoke County's citizens.

ALL THIS MONEY WOULD HAVE STAYED HOME.

Instead, approximately $12,000.00 per month is leaving Raeford NEVER TO RETURN.
