MRS. LEWIS UPCHURCH AND MRS. ARTHUR MATHESON ENTERTAIN WITH BRIDGE

On Friday afternoon from 3 to 6 Mesdames Lewis Upchurch and Arthur Matheson, Jr., were hostesses to a number of thei rfriends. This was one of the most enjoyable afternoon parties of the Fall. It was given at the Upchurch home which was elaborately and tastefully decorated for the occasion. Flowers and plants and red candles suggestive of the approaching Christmas season formed the scheme of the decorations. These decorations were effectively used in the living room, music room, and dining room. There were six tables of those playing bridge and four of those playing rook. Score pads, tallies and table markers carried out the Christmas idea.

Those winning prizes in bridge were Mrs. John Walker high score prize and Mrs. Benton Thomas low score prize.

Mesdames J. C. Thomas and C. W. Seate were holders of high and low scores in rook.

A delicious salad course followed by fruit cake was served. There were a number of out-of-town guests present.. These were Miss Kelly, of Highsmith Hospital, Fayetteville. Misses Sarah Currie, Hayden and Rainey, of Fayetteville; Mrs. Paul McCain, Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Williams, of Sanatorium; Mrs. Randle Matheson, of Hightstown, N. J., and Mrs. Lewis McBrayer, of Timberland. A number of Raeford people who did not play came in for tea.

U. D. C. HOLDS REGULAR MEETING WEDNESDAY

The Raeford Chapter of the U. D. C. held its December meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Poole with Mrs. W. B. McLauchlin and Mrs. Sexton as joint hostesses

The Chapter voted to send a "Christmas Cheer" contribution to the Confederate Home in Raleigh. Mrs. McLean reported a generous assortment of canned goods for the Thanksgiving shower for the Women's Home in Fayetteville.

Mrs. J. W. Currie made a splendid talk on "N. C. Literary Women of the Sixties." Poems were read by Mrs. W. P. Covington and Miss Margie Campbell, which were written by N. C. women.

At the conclusion of the program the hostesses served real pound cake with coffee.

If a man's Scotch is good, no one seems to mind his English.
