EVERGREEN GROUP MEETS.

The Evergreen group of the garden club met February 11th in the home of Mrs. Lewis Upchurch with Mrs. Hallie Gatlin assistant hostess.

Mrs. J. W. Walker presided over the business and plans were made for securing nandinas for the triangle at the cemetery. This will complete the club project for the year.

The program for the afternoon was on How to Transplant Native Shrubs and Trees, and was led by Mrs. J. W. Dowd. Mrs. Dowd gave a paper on this subject, and also presented pictures on slides by way of illustration. Mrs. A. L. O'Brian read a paper on the Use of Pine on Highways, Drives and Gardens. A paper, "How Can the Garden Club Lead in Planting Trees in the Community," was given by Mrs. H. McK. McDiarmid. A poem, Winter Shadows, was read by Mrs. A. K. Currie. The program was well given and very helpful.

The hostesses served a dainty salad plate carrying out colors suggestive of Valentine Day.

GARDEN LOVERS MEET.

The Garden Lovers held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. K. A. MacDonald, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. A. D. Gore. After a business meeting the program as outlined in the year book was given with Mrs. Dezerne, Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Blue taking parts.

During the social hour delicious refreshments suggestive of the Valentine season were served by the hostesses.

BARRINGTON - JONES.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilbur Barrington announce the engagement of their daughter, Myrtice Elizabeth, to Daniel Silas Jones, of Salisbury, the wedding to take place in March.

Mrs. I. H. Shankle, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Shankle and son, Jimmie, attended the funeral of Mrs. Clarence Griffin, in Albemarle, Monday.

Little Patricia Ann Cottingham, of Rockingham, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Cottingham.

U. D. C. MEETS.

The Raeford Chapter U. D. C. met Wednesday, February 5th, in the home of Mrs. N. B. Blue at 3:30 with Mrs. Kate Blue Covington assistant hostess.

The meeting was opened with the devotional led by Mrs. W. C. Brown. Mrs. Kate Blue Covington presided over the business session held.

Plans were made for the district meeting to be held here on March 26th.

Mrs. M. L. McKeithan had charge of the program, which was on Sidney Lanier, reading a most interesting sketch on his boyhood days.

The hostesses, assisted by Misses Patsy and Bonnie Kate Blue, served sandwiches and tea, followed by salted nuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck and daughter spent the weekend in Thomasville.

The Clyde Upchurches entertained a few close friends who were chattering epicureans with one of those good suppers Friday night.

Mrs. Belton Wright who is bookkeeper for the R. E. A. offices of Hoke, Scotland and Robeson, located in Raeford, is attending an R. E. A. school at the Robert E. Lee hotel, Winston-Salem.

Mary Shaw McDiarmid, of Raleigh, spent the weekend with her mother.

Mrs. Ryan McBryde and Mrs. J. A. Wright spent Thursday in High Point.

Josephine McLaughlin and Patsy Blue spent the weekend at Flora Macdonald college.

Miss Christiana McFadyen, who teaches at W. C. in Greensboro, was home for the weekend.

Little George Arthur Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver, is ill with flu.

Mrs. Marvin Gillis has been very ill with the flu.

Viola Maxwell, of Raleigh, spent the weekend at home with her parents.

WITH THE ARMY PEOPLE.

Capt. and Mrs. House and three children have rented T. B. Lester, Jr.'s home and expect to move in at once.

Lieutenant and Mrs. R. C. Maness, of Kingstree, S. C., will move into the upstairs apartment at Mrs. Paul Dickson's this week.

A solid pullman train carrying a medical battalion from New York to Bragg passed through Raeford yesterday. It was a splendid looking bunch of men, far removed from the dirty, tired looking soldiers packed into day coaches that many remember in years gone by.

George Dickson, young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Graham Dickson, has been very ill with pneumonia, and has two nurses. He is much better now, however. Lieutenant Dickson came up from Moultrie to take his family back with him but remained in Raeford after the baby became sick.

Capt. and Mrs. Conk, and daughter Lynn, of West Palm Beach, Florida, have taken the apartment at Mrs. Paul Dickson's that Capt. and Mrs. King have had. They are rooming at Mrs. Julian Johnson's until Mrs. King joins her husband at Fort Blanding, Fla. Capt. Conk is one of the artillery instructors at the army replacement center, Fort Bragg.

Major Poole was home for the weekend from Ft. Moultrie.

Lt. and Mrs. William Pugh and daughter, Beth, of Southern Pines, spent Sunday with Lt. and Mrs. Ben Humphrey who have an apartment at Robert Gatlin's.

Chaplain and Mrs. Willard Brown have taken an apartment at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Reamy.

Lieut. and Mrs. Younger Snead, of Fort Moultrie and children, are at home. Lt. Snead has been ordered to Fort Monroe to school. While he is there Mrs. Snead will divide her time between her old home at Weldon with her mother, Mrs. Vinson, and Raeford.

Lt. George Dooley of Detroit, Michigan, has rented Leo Fuller's house.

Lt. Dooley has recently completed a course of instruction at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, and will be an instructor in the replacement center at Fort Bragg. Mrs. Dooley and child will join Lt. Dooley at an early date.

GINGER GOES FLOWERY: For a special evening date after the completion of RKO Radio's "Kitty Foyle," in which she scores as the white-collar heroine, Ginger Rogers selected this colorful black print dress. Bouquets of brilliant field flowers "grow" on its full, circular skirt, encircle the slender waist. Ginger wears a gardenia, one of her most favored flowers, to enhance the top of solid black which features high neck and short sleeves.

Those attending the meeting of the executive board of Fayetteville Presbyterian Auxiliary, Friday, February 7th, in Fayetteville, were: Mrs. Clarence Lytch, Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin, Mrs. H. C. McLaughlin, and Mrs. A. K. Currie.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Currie attended a banquet at the Carolina at Pinehurst, Friday evening, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Burney, of Aberdeen.
