CHAMINADE MUSIC CLUB HAS ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING.

The Chaminaide music club held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, February 18th, at the home of Mrs. E. A. MacDonald, with Miss Marion Cox and Mrs. Arah Gatlin Stuart joint hostesses.

Mrs. R. L. Murray, chairman of the club, presided. As this was the annual business meeting, reports from all officers were given and officers for the next club year were voted on. The following were elected:

Mrs. R. L. Murray, president.
Miss Mildred James, vice-president.
Mrs. H. R. McLean, secretary.
Miss Jessie B. Ferguson, treasurer.
Mrs. C. E. Upchurch, press reporter.
Mrs. L. M. Upchurch, custodian of music.
Mrs. Ina P. Bethune, rating chairman.

Mrs. Murray read names of the program committee for the ensuing year as follows:

Mrs. W. R. Barrington, Mrs. W. M. Thomas, Miss Jessie B. Ferguson.

At the conclusion of the business session Mrs. A. L. O'Brian read a paper on "Fugal and Sonata Forms." After this the hostesses served a delectable salad plate, carrying out the George Washington idea in color motif and small hatchets as favors.

TEACHERS HAVE INTERESTING MEETING.

On Wednesday evening of last week four teachers who make their home at Mrs. B. R. Gatlin's entertained the other Raeford teachers at their regular monthly meeting. These hostesses were Mrs. Sallie Johnson, Miss McLaurin, Miss Kimbrough and Miss Cox. The program was a good one and was in charge of Earl Smith and Miss McLaurin. After the program refreshments were served and a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

Martha and Ruth Looper visited in Marshville this past Sunday.

NEW SHIPMENT OF LADIES' Slips, Panties, and other feminine fashions just arrived at BAUCOM'S.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY HONORS NEW PASTOR AND WIFE.

Rev. and Mrs. H. K. Holland and two daughters were introduced socially to the Presbyterian congregation last Thursday evening.

The Woman's Auxiliary sponsored a reception in the undercroft of the church to which all members were invited. Long leaf pine made a pleasing background for the attractively arranged tables from which punch and cake were served. In the receiving line with Rev. and Mrs. Holland were: Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lynch, Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Brown, Miss Flora Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Currie, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Murray, Dr. and Mrs. Marcus Smith and Cecil Dew.

Many called to welcome the new pastor and his wife and the occasion proved to be a most pleasant one.

PARTY AT LUMBER BRIDGE.

Misses Delia Cottingham and Carolyn McGoogan were hostesses Wednesday night at a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Pete Canady, at the home of Miss Cottingham at Lumber Bridge.

Twelve friends were present and each made a sheet for the scrapbook which was presented to the bride. After enjoying other games, the bride received many lovely gifts for her home. A salad course and coffee was served.

Mrs. Canady before her recent marriage, was Miss Catherine McGoogan, of Arabia. After March 1st she will be at home in Parkton.

Mrs. Canady for the past few months has been connected with the permanent wave shop at Red Springs.

Y. W. A. GIRLS MEET.

Mrs. F. T. Siskron and Frances Campbell were hostesses to the Y. W. A. girls of the Baptist Church Monday night. The program was on "The Importance of Tithing." During the social hour delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. T. B. Lester is in Pittman hospital for treatment.

WITH THE ARMY PEOPLE.

Lt. Sample, who is well known in Raeford, being with the CCC camp near here, is now stationed at Fort Bragg. He and his family have taken an apartment at Mrs. Ina Lentz's.

Lt. R. W. Kooz, Jr., Co. B, 15th Engr. Bn. has rented William Lamont, Jr.'s house on Donaldson avenue. Sgt. Palmer and wife, who now occupy it, will move to quarters at the Post the first of March.

TOURNAMENT FOR BENEFIT OF HOKE HIGH SCHOOL BAND WELL ATTENDED.

On Friday evening a card tournament was held in the Kiwanis hall for the benefit of the Hoke high school band. A very good-sized crowd attended, although not nearly so large as should have been there for this cause. Just before the games the band gave a concert which lasted a half an hour. This was under the direction of their leader, Mr. Melvin, of Red Springs. The music was good and the band promises to be a feature of which the town will be justly proud.

The score cards were unusually attractive, being hand made. There were many pretty prizes and a number of things had been contributed by different organizations which were auctioned off by Robert Gatlin toward the close of the evening. Light refreshments were served.

High score in bridge was won by Mrs. Paul Dickson, and in rook by Mr. Beall of the Sanatorium.

There were a number of other table prizes won.

WITH THE ARMY PEOPLE.

Sgt. and Mrs. Moss, who came from Raeford from Ft. Benning, Ga., are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Trawick.

Lt. and Mrs. William Lamont, of Fort Moultrie, spent several days with home folks.

Sgt. and Mrs. James Graham, of San Antonio, Texas, have an apartment with Mrs. Aganora Andrews.

Lt. Graham Dickson, of Ft. Moultrie, was accompanied back to the post by Mrs. Dickson and George Graham Dickson, Jr. Miss Bessie Love went with them but will return to Raeford in a few days. The baby, who had been quite sick with pneumonia, is very much improved.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE SOCIETY TO MEET.

The general meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon in the basement of the church at 3 o'clock. All members are asked to be present as they will have an out of town speaker.

LUNCHEON BRIDGE.

Mrs. John Walker entertained the Senior Bridge club last Friday with a luncheon followed by bridge. Covers were laid for twelve at card tables. Place cards, tallies, etc., were suggestive of Valentine.

Mrs. Clyde Upchurch won the club prize and Mrs. Lewis Upchurch the visitor's prize.

PRESBYTERIAN YOUNG PEOPLE ENTERTAINED.

The Auxiliary of the Raeford Presbyterian church entertained the young people last Monday night in the undercroft of the church. Mrs. Herbert McKeithan had charge of the social hour.

Delicious sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served during the social hour.
