Fort Screven, Ga., May 5.—With the return of Lieutenants Sneed and Lester from the Coast Artillery school, Fort Monroe, Va., our training program has regained its intensity.

On last Tuesday most of the battery went on post guard, and fatigue duties. Our youngest sergeant, Millard Freeman, and our youngest corporal, Joseph McAnulty, got their first taste of their new duties and performed ably.

Wednesday morning the boys were up bright and early. All had a peculiar gleam in their eyes.

there would be a foot march that morning by the whole battery. The hike caused no serious casualties and what we had expected that morning came immediately after dinner—pay day.

Thursday and Friday were spent in gun cleaning, artillery drill, machine gun instruction, infantry drill, and bayonet.

Saturday morning was spent with the usual weekly inspection of men and equipment.

Sgt. Jamie W. Stone and Pfc. Neill James Blue have been selected as candidates for an officers' training course to be held at Fort Monroe, Va., beginning July 1st.

Pfc. James McMillan and Pvt. Hector McNeill have been relieved of their school bus duties effective May 1st.

Sergeant Buis Bethune has been re-appointed as mess sergeant. Since our arrival here we have been messing with headquarters battery and they have been furnishing the mess sergeant during April.
