MISS LAURIN GUEST OF HONOR

Mrs. Maxie McLaurin, a popular member of the school faculty, who has made her home the past winter with Mrs. B. R. Gatlin, was the recipient of a lovely party in her honor Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Stuart, Mrs. Sallie Johnson, Misses McKenzie, Fletcher, Cox and Kimbrough were hostesses at the Gatlin home; bridge and rook being played at several tables. Mrs. Joe Dowd won the bridge prize and Miss Leone Currie rook. Green and white was the color motif used in flowers, tallies and refreshments. Miss McLaurin and Miss Lorena Falls, brides-elect, were given pieces of silver and china in their selected patterns.

Miss McLaurin was also presented with a shower of gifts from those present. She was enthusiastic in her appreciation of this delightful courtesy.

BRIDES-ELECT HONORED BY MRS. W. D. BROWN AND MRS. JOE DOWD

"One of the prettiest parties I ever attended," was the comment heard on all sides last Thursday evening, when Mrs. Joe Dowd and Mrs. W. D. Brown entertained for Misses Lorena Falls and Miss Maxie McLaurin, brides-elect of the early summer at the home of Mrs. Brown.

Flower arrangements in the reception rooms were outstandingly beautiful. Bridal tallies were used and each honoree's place at the bridge table was marked with an exquisite corsage of pink rosebuds and valley lilies. Bridge and rook were played. Mrs. Clyde Upchurch won high score prize in bridge and Mrs. Hallie Gatlin in rook. Mrs. Lewis Upchurch held floating prize in bridge and Miss Leone Currie in rook. Misses Falls and McLaurin were given crystal cake plates.

Refreshments consisted of an ice course, served on a beautifully appointed plate. A real doll in bridal array, veil and all, was on each plate. Individual molds of pink cream, daintily decorated cakes and mints in calla lily molds were on the plates. The teachers of the Raeford schools, relatives and close friends of the honorees enjoyed this hospitality.

CHAMINADE MUSIC CLUB DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED

The Chaminade Music club was most delightfully entertained last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. McGoogan. Two Flora Macdonald girls were the guest artists and rendered a most beautiful program, which follows:

I. Sacred Duets
I waited for the Lord, Mendelssohn; Children Blessed of the Lord, Mendelssohn; Come, Blessed Savior, Saint-Saens—Edith Bugg, Caroline Buie.

II. Arias
Deh Vieni (the marriage of Figaro), Mozart—Edith Bugg.
Care Nome (Rigoletta), Verdi—Caroline Buie.

III. Duets
Sul Aria (the marriage of Figaro); The Flower Duet (Madame Butterfly), Puccini—Edith Bugg and Caroline Buie.

Encore—Jesus—Gently, Savior—Grace Withers, accompanist.
After the program, Mrs. McGoogan, and the hostesses assisting her, Mrs. H. C. McLaughlin, Mrs. W. R. Barrington, and Miss Josephine Hall served refreshments.

Mrs. William Gullledge and Mary Shaw McDiarmid, of Raleigh, spent the weekend at home. William Gullledge, who is on furlough from Ft. Screven, Ga., returned to Raleigh with them Sunday.

Mrs. Bruce McCaa, who has an apartment with Mrs. A. K. Currie, visited her husband at Ft. Monroe over the weekend. Miss Mary Ethel McCaa, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. McCaa, was the guest of Mrs. A. K. Currie.
