McPHAIL—PEELE

The Sneed's Grove Methodist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday morning, June 28, 1941, at 11:00 o'clock when Miss Willie Peele became the bride of James McPhaul of Red Springs. The Rev. E. H. Measmer, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets, pines, Queen Anne's Lace and ferns.

Before the ceremony, Miss Nancy Monroe of Laurinburg played a prelude of wedding music. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Curtis G. Griffin of Dunn sang "At Dawning and I Love You Truly."

Serving as ushers were Mr. Wade Legette, of Winston Salem, and Mr. Graham McPhaul of Red Springs.

The bride groom had as his best man, his brother, Mr. Walter McPhaul of Oxford.

Mrs. Raymond Sowell of Hartsville, S. C., niece of the bride, was same of honor.

The bride entered with her nephew, Mr. D. B. Quick, by whom she was given in marriage.

The bride was lovely in a costume suit of natural and brown with harmonizing accessories. Her shoulder corsage was yellow rose buds and lily of the valley.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left on a trip to unannounced points. Upon their return they will make their home in Red Springs.

Mrs. McPhaul is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Sallie Peele and the late Mr. Peele, of near Laurinburg. She graduated from the Laurinburg High School and Eastern Carolina Teachers College. For the past six years she has been a member of the faculty of Mingo High School near Dunn, N. C.

Mr. McPhaul is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McPhaul of Red Springs. He attended North Carolina State College. He is engaged in farming and lumbering.

Mrs. McPhaul has been shown several courtesies since the announcement of her engagement.

MRS. CLYDE UPCHURCH, JR.

Mrs. T. B. Upchurch, Sr., and Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Sr., entertained at the home of the former for more than one hundred guests at a tea Saturday afternoon, honoring their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Jr., the former Miss Lorena Falls, of Gastonia.

Receiving with the hostesses and honoree were Alworthy Upchurch and Lucile Hutchison, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Isabella Wilson of Davidson. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Lewis Upchurch and Mrs. J. S. Johnson. Mrs. H. A. Cameron introduced the guests to the receiving line.

From the drawing room, Mrs. T. B. Upchurch, Jr., and Mrs. Tom Cameron directed into the dining room, where Mrs. Paul Dezerne, Mrs. Robert Gatlin, Mrs. H. C. McLaughlin, and Mrs. K. A. McDonald received.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. J. C. Thomas and Mrs. W. C. Brown. The table, carrying out the bridal colors of green and white, was beautifully decorated with white gladiolas, shasta daisies, and gypsophila. Refreshments were served by Misses Elsie Upchurch, Molly and Marie Cameron, Josephine McLaughlin, Betsy Ann Cole, Faye Baker, Leonora Currie, and Katherine Ann Walker. Mints were passed by Florence Cameron, Betty and Mary Sue Upchurch.

Mrs. W. M. Thomas and Mrs. J. B. Thomas showed the way to the register, presided over by Mrs. C. W. Seate and Mrs. J. A. McGoogan. Mrs. J. W. Walker and Mrs. A. L. O'Brian showed the way to the punch bowl on the porch. Serving punch were, Agnes Mae Johnson, Jennie Clark, Elizabeth Hoyle of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Leon Currie of Southern Pines.

Goodbyes were spoken to Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. W. L. Poole.

A profusion of gladiolas, roses and other midsummer flowers were arranged throughout the home, making a lovely setting for the occasion.
