BETHUNE-CLARK

On Saturday night, July 19, at 7:30 o'clock in the Presbyterian Manse, in Raeford, Miss Jennie McNeill Clark became the bride of George Gaither Bethune of Raeford and Concord. The Rev. Harry K. Holland heard the vows. The ring ceremony was used.

The couple stood before an improvised altar against a background of traditional green and white with seven branched candelabra. The candles were lighted by Lt. Neill James Blue of Fort Screven, Ga. There were no attendants and the bride and groom entered together.

The bride was lovely in a two piece costume of waterfall blue with contrasting accessories and corsage of orchids.

Only the immediate families of the young couple were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Lucy Franklin Clark and the late Bessie Blue Clark and the grand daughter of Mrs. James A. Blue with whom she has made her home. She graduated from Raeford High School and attended Flora Macdonald College and Woman's College at Greensboro. She was presented to State society in 1939 in Raleigh.

Mr. Bethune is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Bethune of Raeford. He attended the University of North Carolina and now holds a position with Propst Construction Company of Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. Bethune will be at home in Concord after the first of August.
