GRANT CAMERON... Miss Alberta Cameron became the bride of L. A. Grant in rites taking place Saturday evening, February 14, at St. Marcellas Chapel in Sanford.

Miss Sarah Cameron, sister of the bride, organist, and Miss Margaret Cameron of Olivia, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Before the ceremony Miss Cameron played "The Rosary" and "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life." The soloist sang "Libelstram" and "I Love You Truly."

Ushers were Herbert Cameron of Raleigh, brother of the bride, and Russell Thomas of Sanford, cousin of the bride. The bridegroom was attended by Bill Reidell of Fort Bragg.

Miss Idell Thomas, of Sanford, was maid of honor. The bride entered with her father, D. M. Cameron, by whom she was given in marriage. The bride wore an early spring costume suit of aqua wool with gray squirrel collar. Her accessories were black. Her shoulder corsage was of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Thomas on Carthage street in Sanford. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple left for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Grant is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cameron, route 2, Vass, Hoke county. She attended Louisburg college. For the past several years she has been employed in the County Agent's Office in Raeford.

Mr. Grant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Grant of Warrenville, Ill. Since his induction into the United States army he has been stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C.

Those attending the wedding from Raeford were Mrs. Chandler Roberts, Misses Sarah Ella Conoly, Josephine Hall and Louise Blue.

MRS. MARSHALL THOMAS ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Marshall Thomas entertained the old bridge club (old because first one organized in town; age of members having nothing to do with it, of course) at her home Friday evening. Three tables of bridge were in play, with three visitors playing. These were Mrs. Julian Blue, Mrs. Alfred Cole and Mrs. Arah Stuart.

After enjoying the game for several hours a salad plate with hot coffee was served. High score club prize was won by Mrs. Paul Dickson and visitor's prize by Mrs. Alfred Cole.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING.

The American Legion Auxiliary met with Mrs. Dave Hodgins and Mrs. Julian Blue at the home of Mrs. Blue yesterday (Wednesday) morning. Mrs. Herbert McKeithan, president, was in the chair.

Much business was discussed and plans made. The Auxiliary thinks that probably there are women among the army personnel and others in Raeford who would be interested in joining or meeting with the Auxiliary. They are cordially invited to do so and the next meeting will be with Mrs. Hallie Gatlin on March 18.

Mrs. Arthur Matheson, Jr., was appointed to represent the American Legion Auxiliary in Civilian Defense work and to cooperate with the committee whenever needed.

CHAMINADE MUSIC CLUB HAS BUSINESS MEETING.

The Chaminaide club held its annual business meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Walker, with Mrs. Walker and Mrs. John McGoogan hostesses.

Mrs. R. L. Murray, president, whose term expires with this meeting, was in the chair. A new president was not elected at this time. After the current business the monthly music study was conducted by Mrs. Graham Dickson. The hostesses served a salad plate which was very much enjoyed.

There was not a large number present as the strenuous activities at this time of so many of the members keep them from attending in the afternoons.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hall were Mrs. Archie Byrnes of Pembroke, and Mrs. Eubanks of Wingate.

MISS MARY HELEN GATLIN HAS HOUSE PARTY.

Miss Mary Helen Gatlin entertained several of the Meredith college friends at her home in Raeford the past weekend. The three seniors from Meredith with Mary Helen were Misses Bettie Clingan, Addie Davis and Mildred Ancue. Miss Emma Barker, another former Meredith girl who teaches at Shallotte, came to Raeford with Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gatlin and Miss Hall of the Raeford school faculty also joined the party. They had a very merry time, visited Fort Bragg and returned to Raleigh Sunday night.

Jake Austin, U. S. N., stationed at Wilmington and Miss Frances Ingram, of Norwood, were in Raeford for a short while Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin and Mrs. H. C. McLaughlin taught the mission study at the Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church in Southern Pines Sunday night.

Mrs. Ola Smith continues seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Harvey, on North Main St.

E. J. Nicholson, pfc, of Fort Bragg, and Mrs. Nicholson, who make their home with Mrs. C. W. Seate, spent last Sunday in Asheville.

Mrs. Flora McLaughlin is now living with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Brown. After leasing her home Mrs. McLaughlin boarded with Mrs. Seate for awhile before moving to Mrs. Brown's.

Misses Alberta Campbell, Briggs Wood, Frances Bevan, Katie Margaret Bouyer, Tiny Looper and Pat Stuart attended the 17th F. A. anniversary dance Friday night at Fort Bragg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Morris spent last weekend in Newton/Grove with Mrs. Morris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Williams.

Mrs. A. R. Morris, who has been ill for several weeks, is much improved.

J. W. Daniels, of the C. C. C. camp official personnel, and his mother, Mrs. J. W. Daniels, of Reidsville, have an apartment with Miss Lizzie Niven.

Mrs. Perry Sloan, Mrs. Murray Jones and Mrs. John Bright, of Durham, spent last Friday with Mrs. Paul Dickson.

Mrs. H. L. Gatlin, Jr., and Leon, who have been spending the past month in Mayport, Fla., with Mrs. Gatlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Marshburn, returned home Sunday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Marshburn were quite sick while their daughter was with them.

Mrs. Cy Thompson of Raleigh, who spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Arch McEachern in the county, went to Laurinburg Saturday to attend the funeral of her cousin, Angus McNeill. Mrs. John McNeill, Laurie McEachern, and Mrs. Paul Dickson, Jr., also attended this funeral which was held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Upchurch and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Howard spent several days in Atlanta this week. The men went on business in regard to Hoke Concrete Works.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dobson spent several days last week at her home in Spartanburg, S. C. She returned to Raeford Sunday with Lieutenant Dobson, who had joined her for the weekend.

Sgt. and Mrs. Lohi have taken an apartment with Miss Ida McLaughlin.
