porarily in this fine old house of memories. But here dwelt first those of stout heart, great vision and brave spirit, who faced the wilderness, felled the primeval forest, built a new nation, new homes with fee simple title to thousands of acres of "goodly land," surrounding them. In time this land became well tilled and fertile fields, through the thought and labor of masters and contented slaves who under a kindly and patriarchal system, which found its best expression in the devout Scottish settlements along the Cape Fear river and in neighboring counties, making up the "Cape Fear country," conquered the wilderness of North Carolina.

"O fortunate, O happy day When a new home finds its place Among the myriad homes of earth, Like a new star, just sprung to birth, So said the guests in speech and song,
As in the chimney burning bright They hanged the iron crane that night."
Longfellow, "Hanging of the Crane."

Signally honored guests on this occasion were Mesdames Bailey Evans and George McNeill of Fayetteville; Mrs. Alexander Shaw of Wagram; Mrs. Flora McNeill Ray of Scotland county; Miss Fannie McKay of Wagram; Miss Betsy McNeill of Laurinburg; Mrs. Clarence Lynch, Raeford, and Miss Mary Gilchrist McNeill of Lumberton.

This happy occasion is to be the forerunner of many parties throughout the years, which will doubtless strengthen bond of kinship and friendship.
