COCA COLA PARTY FOR BRIDES-TO-BE

Misses Thomas and Gatlin were honor guests at a very delightful but informal gathering of friends on Wednesday morning when Mrs. Clyde Upchurch, Clyde Upchurch, Jr. and Mrs. R. B. Lewis entertained with a "coca-cola" at the home of Mrs. Lewis. Young friends of the brides-elect and their mothers met for one hour from 11 to 12 and chatted over the drinks and delicious sandwiches which were served. Pretty gifts of flowers were given to Mary Ellen and Mary Helen.

Randolph Macon Rewards Jim Lentz

James C. Lentz, who attended Randolph Macon Academy, Front Royal, Va., was notified yesterday that he had been awarded the Service Medal for being the most unselfish cadet. This is a coveted honor at that well known school.

MISS MARY HELEN GATLIN HONORED

On Tuesday afternoon of last week Miss Mary Helen Gatlin was the recipient of a charming social courtesy when her aunt, Mrs. Arab Stuart and sister, Mrs. Marion Gatlin entertained for her at her grandmother's home. Three tables were placed for each and four for bridge in rooms tastefully arranged with beautiful garden flowers. Iced drinks were served during the course of the game and a refreshing dozen salad with hot tea and accessories was served after the game.

Mrs. Chandler Roberts was given a high score prize in bridge and Mrs. J. C. Thomas took China. China was given to the honoree and to Miss Mary Ellen Thomas, bride of this week.

Miss Maude Poole came home from Belmont last Thursday.

Cake Cutting For Bridal Party.

Immediately after the Foreman-Thomas rehearsal on Tuesday evening Mrs. J. C. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Thomas, entertained the bridal party, out-of-town guests, and relatives and a few close friends at a cake cutting.

Members of the family standing on the porch welcomed the guests as they arrived. They were served punch on the north side of the porch by Mrs. Marshall Thomas, Mrs. Jack Morris and Mrs. C. J. Scott of Durham.

The Thomas home was a lovely bower of beauty. Gorgeous flowers were used in drawing room, hall, dining room and sun room. Masses of regal lilies in white wrought iron flower holders were used in the hall. Muntel and serving table in the dining room were banked with lilies, baby's breath, and carnations. The dining room table was centered with the beautiful three tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom graduated streamers of white satin ribbon with white rosebuds on the end went out from the cake. Also attached to each streamer were beautiful sterling favors for the twenty members of the bridal party, and a written toast to the bride and groom. After the cake was cut, ice cream nuts and mints were served by Miss Mary Lewis, Mrs. Clyde Melnitz, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Bob Cook.

The toasts to the bride and groom were read causing much merriment. Mrs. Arab Stuart, a former music teacher of the bride was at the piano during the evening and Mrs. R. B. Lewis sang several selections.

Foreman-Thomas

The wedding of Miss Mary Ellen Thomas and Robert Evans Foreman of Elizabeth City took place in the Methodist church last evening at 8:30 o'clock with Rev. W. F. Trawick officiating.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Agnes Mae Johnson of Raeford rendered a program of nuptial music including "Clair de Lune", "Traumer", "Largo", "Evening Star", Miss Maude Poole of Raeford sang "Because" and "Ich Liebe Dich".

The church was lighted with tall white cathedral tapers at the windows and graduated candelabra at the altar. Large baskets of white regal lilies against pine and fern formed the background. The altar rail was entwined with smilax.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage and was met at the altar by the bridegroom who was attended by his father, L. Roscoe Foreman, as best man. As the vows were spoken, "To a Wild Rose" was played softly. The traditional wedding marches from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used.

The bride's wedding gown was of white Dutchess satin fashioned with shirred bodice and sweetheart neckline. Her full skirt ended in a court length train and her veil of illusion fell the full length of the train from a tiara bordered with pearl orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white sweet peas and baby's breath. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. J. B. McLeod, sister of the bride and matron of honor wore a dress of white lace and mousseline de soie and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids, Misses Vernon Fountain of Tarboro, Emily Smither of Winston-Salem, Frances Hallum of Rockingham, Anne Fountain of Tarboro, Frances Johnson of Weldon, and Florence Lester of Raeford wore dresses and hats identical with that of the matron of honor, and carried arm bouquets of red roses. Their head dresses were shirred tiaras of lace matching that of the dresses.

The ushers were Roscoe Foreman, Junior, Clay Foreman and James Foreman of Elizabeth City, brothers of the groom, and J. B. McLeod, C. L. Thomas, and Paul Dezerne of Raeford.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of blue marquisette and Mrs. Foreman, mother of the groom, wore rose chiffon. Both mothers wore shoulder corsages of white orchids.

Immediately after the ceremony, the reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. L. Roscoe Foreman received guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line composed of the bridal couple, the bride's attendants, and Mrs. Margaret Love, Mrs. Margaret Jeunette, Mrs. Clay Foreman, and Mrs. Roscoe Foreman, Jr., relatives of the groom.

Mrs. J. K. David and Miss Agnes Mae Johnson invited guests into the dining room where Mrs. J. C. Thomas, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Ina Lentz were assisted by the Misses Maude Poole, Mary Helen Gatlin, and Sara Ella Conoly of Raeford, Nannie Lou Kerns of Durham, Terrell Smith of Rockingham, Carolyn Gwaltney of Ocoola, Ark., in serving wedding cake, ice cream and nuts.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. R. H. Cook directed the guests to the gift room where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wilson of Charlotte, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Thomas of Blueford. Miss Lynn Cook and Master Benny McLeod invited guests to the porch where Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dezerne served punch and Mrs. W. L. Poole presided over the register.

Later in the evening Ensign and Mrs. Foreman left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in St. Louis, Mo., where Ensign Foreman will be an instructor in the Naval Air Corps. For traveling Mrs. Foreman changed to a black sheer dress with black and white accessories. She wore a corsage of white orchids lifted from the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Foreman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thomas of Raeford. She was graduated from Duke University in May where she received an B. A. degree. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi, national social sorority. She was presented to North Carolina society in 1940.

Ensign Foreman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Roscoe Foreman, finished at Duke University in 1942 and is a member of Kappa Alpha social fraternity.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. L. Roscoe Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Foreman, Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Foreman, Mr. James Foreman, Mrs. Margaret Jeunette, Mrs. Margaret Lowe of Elizabeth City, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wilson and Jimmy Wilson of Charlotte, Miss Nannie Lou Kerns of Durham, Miss Terrell Smith and Mrs. Tom C. Covington of Rockingham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sutton and Mrs. Nell Whitlock of Fayetteville and Miss Carolyn Gwaltney of Ocoola, Ark.
