

Army 'Dinner Pails' from Pulpwood

(Photo, Inquirer Photo) THIS is the famous U. S. Army field Ration "K" for emergency use in fast moving invasion operations and in places distant from the regular "chow lines." One "K" ration for each meal. It weighs only 32.86 oz., yet contains 3,726 calories. Included are biscuits, canned meat, soluble coffee, malted milk, bouillon and lemon juice powder—also gum and cigarettes. All parts, except tin, are pulpwood products. Keep 'em full! Cut r...

$5,000 Is Paid For One Cow

Elkin, Oct. 8.—New history in Guernsey cattle in the South was written at Thurmond Chatham's Klondike farm at Elkin this week. In the first sale of registered Guernsey cows ever sponsored by the farm, which brought purchasers from many states, J. C. Penny handled the sale in the purchase of a cow at a bid of $5,000, to place on his emerald farm at Hopewell Junction, N. Y. Said high bid was $4,200 by John M. Berry of Berry Mills, Berryton, Ga. Third high was by J. M. McDonald of Cortland, N. Y., for a $2,200 heifer. J. C. Penny purchased four head during the sale, 37 animals consigned by Guernsey breeders of the South selling for an average of $1,019.

Holsteins

Cottonade Farm at Fayetteville and Happy Hill Farms at Matthews purchased outstanding females at the recent Dunloggin sale of Holsteins in Maryland. Sale of 209 animals brought $383,700.

Social Security Card Not Sufficient Identification

Fayetteville, Oct. 13.—Officials of the Social Security board today issued a warning to banks, stores, and other business concerns who have occasion to cash checks for the public regarding the acceptance of social security cards as personal identifications. Bank checks, stolen from business houses have been filled out and cashed, on the strength of a social security card which the payee presented as identification. One chief was brought to justice after he had forged and cashed six different checks, using social security cards in each instance as identification.

Another report says that a group of five boys used this precautionary method of securing money. They obtained checks and used their own social security cards as identification. The fact that the boys landed in jail was of little solace to the banks and the merchants who cashed their forged checks, for it was the payer in each case who was left to bear the loss.

Scouter Training Schools To Be Conducted Here

The training school for Scouters in the Western District of the Cape Fear Council for Boy Scouts will be conducted this fall under the leadership of the Field executive, Mac Gaskins. The school will last for four nights, of three hour periods each, and two schools will be conducted in the district, thus giving every scouter a school within his reach. Each scouter must take all four class periods in order to get credit for the course, and the school will be so arranged in the district that should one have to miss one of the classes in Course No. 1, he could attend that same instruction period in Course No. 2. Course No. 1, will run the last two weeks in October and course No. 2, will run the first two weeks in November. The schedule for the courses is: Course No. 1.

October 13—Raeford School Building.
October 20—Raeford School Building.
October 27—Red Springs School Building.
October 28—Red Springs School Building.
Course No. 2.
November 4—Laurinburg.
November 5—Laurinburg.
November 11—Laurinburg.
November 12—Laurinburg.
The hours each night will be 7 to 10.
Other business handled at the monthly executive committee meeting was of general interest. A nominating committee for the new officers consisting of W. R. Sutherland, W. H. Hasty and H. C. McLaughlin was appointed to report at the December meeting.
The November meeting of the executive committee will be in Laurinburg on Nov. 4, at the opening of the Scouters' Training Course.
The annual meeting for this year will be at Laurel Hill School, and will be a special supper meeting. Scouts in the district who are ready for the Eagle Award will be invited to this meeting and will be given the eagle award at a special court conducted during the evening. The committee on arrangements is, W. C. Covington, W. D. Reynolds, M. D. Livingston and G. Y. Newton. The program committee is, F. L. Goodman, V. R. White and E. H. Evans.

BONDS OVER AMERICA

On the fringe of West Virginia's Bethany College is an old white frame house, the home of Alexander Campbell a century ago. Son of a Presbyterian, he founded the Disciples of Christ.

Scout Executive Baker presented the work of the troop committee and urged each troop to put the troop committee to work.

The meeting Thursday night was held in Laurinburg and well attended and every troop in the district was represented.

COMMUNITY ROBBERY

Fire in the woods kills timber, injures labor, stops industry, robs the community, increases the taxes, and, worst of all, handicaps the war effort.

BE SURE IT'S OUT

When your match is out, be sure it can't come back. Be careful with fire in the woods. Eighty per cent of our forest fires are caused by carelessness.

BURNING WOODS IS WASTE

The man who burns his woods to get rid of boll weevils might just as well burn his barn to get rid of rats.

FIRE DANCE LURES INSECTS

Fire is responsible for the greater part of all damage to both young growth and mature timber, according to the U. S. Forest Service. Fire damages and weakens trees, making them easy prey for insects and wood rotting fungi.

BURNED WOODS STERILE

Young trees, like young boys and girls, need plenty of food and water for proper growth. Burned over woods are dry and sterile.

Waste

A recent survey indicates that the average city housewife wastes more than three-fourths of a pound of food for each individual every day. The highest waste is in perishable fruits and vegetables.

The USS Constellation and the USS Constitution, built in 1794, are the oldest American warships still in existence today.

READING & WRITING
BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKern

FOR an excellent firsthand account of the battle for New Guinea read "The Toughest Fighting in the World" by the Australian correspondent George H. Johnston. Mr. Johnston covered every step of the New Guinea campaign from January, 1942, up until a year later when Australian and American soldiers had driven the Japanese out of their strongholds from which they had threatened Port Moresby and the continent of Australia.

Adventure is no longer unusual, says Mr. Johnston, but sometimes an adventure is so fantastic that it is worth the telling. One such story concerns the crew of a bomber that had crashed in the New Guinea wilderness. After slashing their way through the jungle for three terrifying days, the men came upon a clearing where rested the remains of an ancient biplane—a 1919 model. A week's labor, and they made it work. They fueled it with some motor petrol they found nearby, and actually took it up. If the incident had been in the hands of Hollywood, the plane would certainly have reached Port Moresby. But Fate was less kind. At the first gust of wind, the rickety plane crashed and the men were stranded for several days more until an Australian plane sighted them.

GEORGE H. JOHNSTON

Another book about this phase of the war is "The Fighting for New Guinea" by the INS American correspondent, Pat Robinson. The American Air Force, says Mr. Robinson, had a strict rule that none of the boys take credit for shooting down a Zero, without absolute proof. One night the author heard General Whitehead sternly asking a new Fortress tail gunner why he was so sure he had bagged a Zero. "Well," said the youngster diffidently, "maybe I didn't get him, General, but I saw the plane break in three pieces and all three pieces were still burning when they sizzled into the sea." The General laughed. "In that case, young fellow, maybe we ought to stretch a point and credit you with one."

When Mrs. Etta Shiber, author of the book-of-the-month "Paris Underground," was in Paris, after her first release from the Gestapo prison, a small boy came up to her and begged to be allowed to carry her packages. His name was Pierre, she discovered, and he had been a member of a well-to-do family. But his father was a prisoner in Germany, and the money the boy earned for odd jobs was the family's only income. "Some of my friends sell newspapers," he said. "There's more money in that." Then he added, proudly, "But I don't sell in it. It's spreading German propaganda."

From where I sit...
by Joe Marsh

Charlie Jenkins writes me from down at camp: "Dear Joe: Somethin' mighty swell happened to me on my last day's leave. I'm standin' on the corner, not knowin' anybody in town, when a stranger says 'hello, soldier—how'd you like a chicken dinner at home with me and the wife?' "Well, it turns out they were the kind of folks who couldn't do enough to help out soldiers. They'd invited two other fellows and just as soon as we're introduced the lady brings us a glass of beer before dinner. "We had a fine dinner, talked till ten... Honest, Joe, I'll never forget their hospitality. Makes me feel good fighting for people like that." Thought you might like to hear what kind o' fellows we got in this army of ours, and how they like to enjoy themselves when they get a chance to.

SPECIAL ATTENTION MR. FARMER! FERTILIZERS

We will be in a position to start delivering your fertilizer requirements for the 1943-44 Season, beginning OCTOBER 15th to NOVEMBER 1st, 1943.

To insure your having your fertilizers when you need them it is necessary that you start taking in your fertilizers not later than OCT. 15th to NOV. 1st. This is due to the fact that the LABOR SITUATION is even now EXTREMELY CRITICAL and daily becoming more CRITICAL. Also, deliveries will have to be made with inadequate transportation facilities.

It is true that for the duration, you as well as ourselves are compelled to operate our business under the most unusual conditions, which will work a hardship on all of us. In your case it means that you will have to take in your fertilizers well in advance of the time that you will actually need them, to insure your having them on hand when you will need them. To whip the Axis and bring the War to a quick ending it is necessary that we all work together, and give and take when and where it is necessary.

TO YOU WHO ANTICIPATE FARMING DURING 1944: For reasons other than those outlined here, a bird in hand during October, November and December will be worth much more to you than what birds you may have in hand after that time.

Your small grain sowed this fall should have ample fertilizer under it, in addition to being dressed with Nitrogen next Spring. We can furnish your requirements for this also.

Make your plans now—See us or our Agents, and let us start delivering your fertilizers not later than October 15th to November 1st.
