WOMEN HAVE OYSTER ROAST—CHOWDER FEED

The WOMEN, yes the women friends of Mrs. Lewis Upchurch, had a great time Monday night down at the Concrete Works where they enjoyed clam chowder and coffee followed by oysters and all the accessories that go to make an oyster roast a real occasion.

Lewis, Fannie and Clyde Upchurch, Archie Howard, Dr. Matheson, H. L. Gatlin Jr., John McGoogan, Harry Green and Buck Chisholm got the oysters out of the shell and everybody had just as many and more than they could eat. It was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the entire season.

MESDAMES MATHESON. ROBERTS ARE HOSTESSES AT THREE PARTIES

Mrs. Chandler Roberts and Mrs. Arthur Matheson were gracious hostesses at the home of the latter on three occasions last week.

On Wednesday they entertained with a beautifully appointed luncheon followed by bridge and ruck. Seven tables were arranged for the game in living and dining rooms. Tables and other appointments were suggestive of Thanksgiving; Mrs. W. T. Covington received the prize for holding high score.

On Thursday covers were laid for twelve when an attractive luncheon was served. Bridge was played in the afternoon with Mrs. Lawrence McNeill holding high score for which she received high prize, a flower bowl of milk glass.

That same evening dinner was served at 7 o'clock at the seven tables at which bridge was played in the evening. Miss Margaret McKenzie of the grammar school faculty won the high score prize on this occasion. Mrs. Matheson's house looked most attractive with tasteful arrangements of white and red chrysanthemums.

MRS. A. K. CURRIE AND MRS. JORDAN ENTERTAIN WITH BRIDGE

BOMBARDIER QUEEN! First just one graduating class of bombardiers at Kirtland Field made the RKO Radio star, Anne Shirley, their "Queen," because she flew to Albuquerque, N. M., to attend their class banquet. But since she appeared as heroine of the big movie "Bombardier," she's been made "Bombardier Queen" or "Bombardier Sweet" in ten graduating classes, and eighteen groups of combat troops.
