YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE MISSION PARTY

As a happy ending for a three-month study in missions the Intermediate Department of the Raeford Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. R. L. Murray is superintendent, enjoyed a "Trip Around The World" party on Thursday evening.

Meeting at the Murray home the members were met at the front door by girls dressed in Mexican costume. They directed them to the side porch where punch and cookies were served. A Mexican game was played. After this all gathered around the piano and sang a Mexican song accompanied by Mrs. Beckman, a teacher of the department.

Then they went to the Holland home where Miss Flora Boyce, dressed in a beautiful white Chinese costume, told them stories of China and Korea. She showed during the stories pictures and curios of these countries. Mrs. Holland served ice cream cones.

From there they went to the home of Mrs. W. T. Covington, who is superintendent of Pioneers and directs the Sunday evening vesper. At her home the members were entertained by Eloise and Lonnie Smith, Jr., children of her cook representing Africa. Following the entertainment the hostess served punch and homemade cake.

F. B. Sexton, superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. Sexton, Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin, a teacher in the Intermediate dept., and Mrs. Murray accompanied the young people in their "Trip Around The World." The party proved enjoyable and instructive.

Sunday afternoon over 20 members of this same group and the Senior group attended a young people's rally at Bethesda Presbyterian church, Aberdeen. They were taken in cars by Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Clarence Lytch, Miss Brunkhurst and Mrs. Murray. Interesting talks were made by the Rev. S. H. Fulton, D. D. Laurinburg, the Rev. M. P. Calhoun of St. Pauls and others.

Supper was served to the eighty-five young people in the dining room of the church.

MRS. FRANK TAPP CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Frank Tapp entertained her bridge club at her home Tuesday afternoon. After several progressions Mrs. Arch Graham was found to be winner of the high score prize for members, and Mrs. Don Davis was awarded the guest prize.

Other guests included Mrs. Alvin R. Fitzsimmons, Joe Hancock, Leon Walker and Miss Lillian Johnson. Delicious refreshments were served at the end of play.

MRS. DEZERNE AND MRS. THOMAS HOSTESSES

Mrs. Paul Dezerne and Mrs. Benton Thomas entertained a number of their friends last Wednesday with two very enjoyable bridge parties at the home of Mrs. Thomas.

The flower arrangements used in the dining and living rooms were most beautiful, consisting of lovely flowers from the garden of the hostesses. Five tables were arranged for the guests in the morning and luncheon was served at one o'clock. Bridge was played afterward with Mrs. Kenneth MacDonald being winner of high score prize.

Again that evening dinner was served at seven o'clock to sixteen, who afterwards played bridge. Mrs. Paul Dickson, Jr., won the high score prize in the evening.

Mrs. J. C. Thomas and Mrs. J. B. McLeod assisted the hostesses in serving.

MRS. CAMERON RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT GARDEN CLUB

The members of the Raeford Garden club met Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at Mrs. H. A. Cameron's summer house. When the members arrived Mrs. Cameron, assisted by Mrs. Allan McGee, served coffee, sandwiches, and cookies.

Mrs. Cameron, chairman, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Arthur D. Gore, president of Woman's Club, spoke briefly on inflation and gave each member a revised OPA ceiling price list to be carried along with their ration books.

Mrs. G. B. Rowland talked on "Conservation." She explained methods of household conservation. A round table discussion, led by Mrs. Cameron, was held.

Mrs. Cameron was unanimously re-elected to serve as chairman for the ensuing year.

After the meeting the members were invited into the hostess' beautiful garden where a flower recognition contest was held. Mrs. Millard Baker won the prize, a large box of plants.
