WOMANS CLUB SOLD

$67,500 IN BONDS DURING

5th WAR LOAN DRIVE

The Educational Department of the Raeford Woman's club held its January meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin with Mrs. Neill McFadyen and Miss Flora Boyce as joint hostesses.

Mrs. R. A. Matheson, vice-chairman, presided over the business session. Mrs. H. A. Cameron expressed the gratitude of soldiers in hospitals at Fort Bragg and Camp Mackall for Christmas packages sent them by members of the Woman's club. A contribution for "March of Dimes" campaign was made. Mrs. Arthur D. Gore, chairman of Stamps and Bonds, reported that the Raeford Woman's club sold $67,500 during the Sixth War Loan drive, $30,000 of which was sold by the Educational department. Mrs. A. K. Currie, president of Woman's club, announced the open meeting of the club to be held in the high school library second Wednesday in February. Mrs. Currie also spoke concerning the club's project, the Hoke County Library, and asked the corresponding secretary to write to our senator and representative and ask that they give their support to the Library Appropriations Bill.

Mrs. W. L. Maness led the program with an interesting paper on Colombia. Mrs. Maness discussed the geography, government and present political status of Colombia.

Mrs. N. B. Sinclair followed with a study of Venezuela. Mrs. Sinclair reviewed the history and industries of Venezuela.

After the program the members were invited into the dining room where Mrs. Bittinger and Mrs. McBrayer poured coffee. The hostesses served a delectable salad plate and Salem cake.

Miss Thelma Clarke of Salisbury and Miss Ruby Lee Clarke of Washington, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clarke.

Miss Mamie Niven of Charlotte, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Niven.

and Mrs. R. A. Matheson were among those who attended the Shriner's Convention in Charlotte. They returned to Raeford Thursday night.

Mrs. C. C. Vincent of Weldon, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Younger Snead.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinson, who are now living in Hamlet and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Culbreth, spent the day in Raeford Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Thomas and Mrs. John K. McNeill spent the weekend with their sister, Mrs. Jessie Lanier in Norwood.

Mrs. Duncan McFadyen and children of Fayetteville, were guests of Mrs. McFadyen's sister, Mrs. Crawford Thomas, this week.

Mrs. Hugh Lowe of Charlotte, spent several days in Raeford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Scott Poole, last week. Mr. Lowe has recently been transferred from Charlotte to Atlanta by the Southern Railroad. He is with the insurance department of that railroad.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT

MEETS WITH MRS. JOHNSON

The Literature Department of the Woman's club held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Julian Johnson on Tuesday evening. Miss Margaret McKenzie and Miss Louise Fletcher were assisting hostesses. In the absence of the president, Mrs. White, Mrs. Neill A. McDonald presided. During a short business session, a collection was taken for the county Soldiers' Center. The time of the meeting for the club was changed from the fourth to the first Tuesday night in the month.

Miss Margaret McKenzie very ably reviewed the book "The Road to Salem," which is a history of the Moravian people moving into North Carolina. Miss McKenzie then presented the year's best and largest book to Miss Aris Shankle, which when opened proved to be a box filled with beautiful gifts from the members to the bride-elect.

The table was centered with a bowl of white narcissi flanked with silver candelabra holding lighted white candles. Mrs. I. H. Shankle poured Russian tea. Sandwiches, dainty cookies of several varieties, nuts and candies were served.

Mrs. Will Roberts, a recent bride, and Mrs. J. C. Thomas and Mrs. J. K. McNeill, kinswomen of Miss Shankle, were guests other than club women.

BAPTIST WOMEN "SHOWER"

MISS SHANKLE

Much interest centers around the approaching marriage of Miss Aris Shankle to Mr. George Albert Swanson of Tacoma, Wash. The different clubs and organizations in which she has taken an active and inspiring part have paid her many courtesies. On Monday evening the Business Women's Circles of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Virgil Dark on Magnolia street. After the business meeting and the conclusion of the program, Miss Shankle was given a tray laden with beautiful gifts from the members of the circle. Mrs. Dark served very dainty and delicious refreshments.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cameron on January 19th at Highsmiths hospital, a daughter named Rosemary.

Mrs. Juanita Cameron Huit, who teaches at Clarkton, spent the weekend in Raeford and was a guest at Mrs. Joe Hancock's party Saturday night.

John McGoogan spent Wednesday of this week in Raleigh. He hopes to bring Mrs. McGoogan home from the hospital today or tomorrow.

Buck McPhaul, who recently bought the Auto Inn and who is installing a modern recapping department, has purchased Walter Baker's house on South Main street, and will move in as soon as the Bakers move to the Willford house.

June Johnson is quite sick this week.

The Rev. J. G. Phillips and Miss Billie Beam, of Durham, were dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Maness Sunday.

MISS SHANKLE HONORED

One of the most delightful of the several parties which have been given for Miss Aris Shankle, bride-elect, was the dessert bridge with which Miss Alma Ferguson and Miss Flora Boyce entertained several members of the Raeford School faculty at the home of Miss Ferguson on Thursday evening.

Upon the arrival of the guests a delicious sweet course was served. In the progressions of bridge which followed, Miss Louise Fletcher held high score and received a lovely gift. Miss Shankle was remembered with a shower of attractive gifts from her hostesses and the guests present.

MRS. JOE HANCOCK HONORS MISS ARIS SHANKLE

Mrs. Joe Hancock entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Morris, on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Aris Shankle, bride-elect of February, and Mrs. John Cameron and Mrs. Will Roberts, fall brides.

On arrival the honorees were given exquisite corsages. Eight tables for bridge and rook were arranged in living and dining room. Mrs. Paul Dezerne was given a prize for making high score in bridge and Mrs. Jim Poole for making high score in rook.

Mrs. Hancock presented her honor guests beautiful gifts and she remembered Mrs. J. P. Wylie, mother of Mrs. H. K. Holland with a gift. A very delicious salad course was served.

Hoke High News

A lively entertainment in minstrel comedy was presented at assembly January 17, by the pupils of the first period study hall, under the direction of Mrs. J. C. McLean. Alfred Cole served as interlocutor and leading roles were played by Herbert McKeithan, Jr., Hamer Leach, Katherine Blue, Barbara Woodhouse, William Sipfle, A. J. Lundy, Betty Holland, Bonnie Kate Blue, Fred Yarborough, and William Clark. Other members of the study hall group composed the chorus. The rapid fire jokes were occasionally interrupted by the appearance of the Boob, a rural comic character, played by Luke McNeill. Specialty numbers, which further added to the fun, were a lecture, "The United Skates," by Barbara Woodhouse; a trio, "In the Evening by the Moonlight," by Miralyn Johnson, Mildred Sinclair, and Harriet Jones; "Lil Liza Jane," sung by Fred Yarborough; and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," by Bonnie Kate Blue. choral numbers was "Darktown Strutters Ball" and the grand final was "Capitown Races."

The members of the agriculture classes, under the direction of Mr. Phillips, have been getting some practical, first hand experience during the past few days by assisting with the installation of the new boiler at the cannery.

A group of pupils from the ninth grade built the forms, mixed, and poured the concrete for the boiler foundation, while pupils from all the other classes assisted with the work of moving and setting up the boiler.

It is expected that the work will be completed early next week and the cannery made ready for operation at an early date.

Mid-term examinations were held Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week. Report cards, showing the scholastic standing of pupils for the first term, will be sent to parents in a few days. The second semester's work began Thursday of this week.

Eighteen supplementary books have been added to the Chemistry department this year. These books are used in connection with the text for additional information. Mrs. Tom Cameron, chemistry teacher, uses the unit plan of teaching in the course.

The Hoke High school library is adding new shelves to take care of the new books that have been added.

The members of the faculty and entire student body are working toward the collecting of dimes for "March of Dimes." Each room has a container for dimes and is striving for one hundred per cent contributions.

Miss Mayme McKeithan's art classes have made several posters for the "March of Dimes" campaign.

The members of the Beta club are sponsoring the high school annual again this year. Mr. White is serving as official photographer and has already made part of the pictures.

The members of the Comus club are working on a one-act play entitled "Letter from Bob." The play will be given at assembly next week for the purpose of promoting the sale of stamps and bonds. Twenty-three Comus pins have been ordered.

In physical education the boys are working on the physical fitness program. They take the exercises given in different branches of the service, and the rating is the same as that in the Air Corps.

Two interesting basket ball games have been scheduled for next week. On Tuesday, January 30, both our teams play the Parkton teams at Parkton, and on Friday, Feb. 2, the Biscoe teams come to Raeford for a return game.

Next Sunday should be a great day for our church as we begin our "Crusade for Christ" campaign to raise two thousand dollars for post-war relief. Let each member come to our morning service in a spirit of prayer prepared to make a generous pledge or cash offering. We are given until January 31, 1946, to pay any pledge we make in this Crusade for Christ.
We will follow our regular schedule of service throughout the day Sunday.
