FEDERAL AGENCIES' SHIFTS FAIL TO SUPPLY NEW BLOOD

WASHINGTON. — Mr. Roosevelt's reorganization for the coming fourth (?) new deal has developed into a mere shift of name plates on office doors.

Not a single fresh figure has been brought in. Only one of the long familiar faces has disappeared — the mobile countenance of the Banker Jesse Jones (now reported in the market for a Washington or other newspaper in which to express his ideals and wounded feelings.)

The unannounced part of the shakeup has definitely brought the Tammany-schooled ward boss Edward Joseph Flynn to the President's right hand in place of Harry Hopkins. After the Malta - Yalta-Livadia confab, Hopkins went back to the hospital and Flynn went to Moscow for more detailed negotiations with the Russians in the name of the President.

Flynn was only an assemblyman, sheriff and city chamberlain around New York before Mr. Roosevelt, while governor, appointed him state secretary of state, and eventually raised him to chairman of the Democratic national committee for the third term election.

Now apparently he is to handle both international diplomatic and domestic matters, taking the load which rested too heavily on the ailing Hopkins. He will bear it with more of a political and less of a social lift. The change represents the substitution of a consummate politician for a social worker.

The announced part of the shifts bear less significant meanings, aside from the striking disclosure that Mr. Roosevelt has not wanted any fresh blood or new ideas in his fourth administration. Otherwise the changes suggest only that labor and the leftwing have improved their position at the inner council table.

Fred Vinson, in the place of Jesse Jones, is a man who knows Washington ropes, and he will pull them adeptly. The $40,000,000,000 mortgage empire built by Jones will be quietly administered.

Economic stabilization will be in the hands of a patent attorney who has made a career of coordination — labor conciliation, William H. Davis.

The union chiefs were glad to get rid of Vinson. In RFC he cannot block their wage increase plans. They think Davis will follow the same conciliatory labor course as stabilizer he followed in the War Labor board.

Will Always Follow FDR.
As a matter of fact, he will do whatever Mr. Roosevelt wants. He will up, down or hold as orders come from the White house, for he is essentially a Roosevelt man.

He has lately acquired some political finesse, is regarded in the inner circle as "brilliant," and is ambitious. His name will become better known.

In his old place at the head of the War Labor board, Dr. George W. Taylor, a young college professor, (labor, economics, etc.) will follow the established Davis-Roosevelt line. He generally voted with Davis, who invariably followed the President's purposes.

All these moves were recommended to the President by the generalissimo of domestic affairs, James F. Byrnes. He got Speaker Rayburn, Vice President Truman and the other inner circumlocutionists together on them, which means his prestige and wishes will be higher from these appointments.

Byrnes As Domestic Chief.
Indeed, it has not been announced, but Byrnes has received carte blanche on domestic affairs from the President.

From these changes I would expect more politics and labor in coming decisions, and nothing much new. Definitely I think it means no job will be done on reconversion to peace comparable to the initial war production job in which new business leadership was brought in wholesale.

Everything is to be in the hands of the old-timers, the tried Roosevelt friends who will no doubt follow the line they have been favoring.

What the coming of Wallace to the stripped commerce department will mean, few will guess until they can see what he does with it. He is supposed to be angling to get control of the federal trade commissioner (now conducting investigations of bigness in business).

In his first move he appointed people who really knew something about small business to investigate that subject, but so many commissions have been started by the government on small business without results, little enthusiasm attends this 16th or 17th effort.

Yet Wallace will have to acquire something important aside from patents, census, etc., to which his management now is limited, else this springboard to a 1948 Presidential candidacy will sag and break under his weight. Wait on this one to see what develops.
