Clarence Kinlaw Back In Jewelry Business Here

C. P. Kinlaw, Raeford jeweler, who has been in the Navy for some time, and says he saw "lots of the Pacific Ocean," is back in the jewelry business in Raeford. He received his medical discharge from the service a few days ago and returned to Raeford last Wednesday. While away, his business was operated by his wife and Miss Annie Neal Sessions.

Promoted

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE FIGHTER STATION, England.—Promotion of Edson Brewer, Red Springs, N. C., from the grade of private first class to corporal, has been announced at this Eighth Air Force Fighter base. His wife lives at Red Springs and his mother, Lillian Bullard, lives on Route 2, Maxton. Cpl. Brewer attended the Hoke County Indian school in Macedonia. Before joining the army air forces he was a farmer. With an ordnance unit of the 55th Fighter Group, the Red Springs soldier is a wrecker operator. The 55th is commanded by Lt. Col. Elwyn G. Righetti, San Luis Obispo, Cal. Cpl. Brewer joined the AAF in October, 1942 and has been overseas since November, 1943.

Receives Unit Award

Pfc. D. Roscoe Currie of the 730th Field Artillery, has been awarded the unit Meritorious Service Award for superior performance of duty while serving in the German campaign, according to a special dispatch to the News-Journal from the 75th Infantry Division. Pfc. Currie is a cook. His wife, Lillian P. Currie, lives in Raeford.

In France

Word has been received by his wife that Pvt. Jack P. Gibson has landed safely in France. Pvt. Gibson entered the service in July, 1944 and received training at Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Promoted

Lt. Herbert S. McLean, Jr., has been promoted to the rank of captain. He is at present in the southwest Pacific.

Warrant Officer George Bethune, USNR, who is now stationed in Washington, D. C., spent the week end with his family here.

Sgt. Alfred Cole, who has recently been at Fort Bliss, Texas, is now at home. He has received a medical discharge from the army.

Labor Profit Of $2 A Day By 4-H Boy

Everyone likes a winner but especially the fellow who has failed in his first endeavor and then comes back to make a rousing success. That's the story of Roy Staton of the Marshville 4-H club in Union county.

Last year Roy began his poultry work with 500 chicks but he allowed his brooder to get too hot and lost a number of chicks. Later the chicks in this weakened condition were attacked by coccidiosis and further losses occurred. As a result, he raised only about 350 out of his 500 chicks.

This year Roy joined the poultry club and began work under the direction of N. B. Nicholson, assistant county agent of the State College Extension Service. He profited by his experiences of last year and followed instructions closely, raising 493 chicks out of a brood of 500.

Roy also kept a careful record of his work at Nicholson's suggestion. He listed his expenses as $45 for chicks, $12 for litter, $114.87 for feed and wood, and a miscellaneous expense of $1.75.

"In the eleventh week I sold the pullets and 15 cockerels for breeding purposes for $207.50," Roy said. "During the twelfth week I sold the remainder of the cockerels for $137.35. My labor profit was $171.43 for 12 weeks of work, or $2.04 a day for work after school."

What does it cost to produce a pound of lint cotton? Join the State Five-Acre Cotton Contest, keep all costs in a special record book, and you will get the answer.

Cotton growers may enter the State Five-Acre Cotton Contest any time July 1, says J. A. Shanklin of State College.

Broadcast Will Feature 100th Baptist Year

The special Centennial broadcast on the Baptist Hour next Sunday morning, May 6th, 7:30 CWT, will reflect a hundred years of the life and history of Southern Baptists, as announced by S. F. Lowe of the radio committee of the Southern Baptist Convention. This is the closest regular broadcast to May 8th, the One Hundredth Anniversary of the organization of the convention.

It is to be a colorful broadcast, according to Mr. Lowe, with the program opening from the First Baptist church of Augusta, Ga., the exact spot on which the convention was organized, and brief special features of practically all the agencies and institutions of the Convention will be picked up from the eight cities in which they are located: Atlanta, Richmond, Louisville, Memphis, Nashville, Fort Worth, New Orleans, Dallas and Birmingham.

Scores of descendants of the members of the First Baptist church of Augusta at the time the Convention was organized will be present in the church for the broadcast, along with a packed house of members and friends, and the special Centennial program will be continued following the broadcast.

This broadcast can be heard in North Carolina over Stations WBIG, Greensboro at 10:00 A. M., and WPTF in Raleigh at 9:30 A. M.

POOLE'S MEDLEY

(By D. Scott Poole)

I. D. S. Poole, began the publication of "Facts and Figures" in Raeford on the 1st of April, 1905. The first issue came out on the last days in March. We were doing nothing for two weeks and were anxious to get started. Raeford Institute published a student periodical before we started the publication of "Facts and Figures," and J. W. Fagan, who for 18 years published "The Aberdeen Telegram," began the publication of "The Raeford Chronicle." I bought both the Telegram and the Chronicle, and Fagan's printing outfit, books and accounts. The two latter items were not delivered.

It is said by those who want to say something, that it is right to keep history straight. Fred P. Johnson bought out my printing and publishing interest on the 18th day of April, 1911, and changed the name of the paper to "The Hoke County Journal."

Later I leased the outfit owned by the Raeford Publishing company and edited the Hoke County Journal for 14 years, then bought and owned the business for eleven months, then sold it to R. L. Eastham and Paul Dickson.

There is much discussion going the rounds of the press on the question of military training for the youth of the land. The trouble about that is our youth may become as the German youngsters, who glory in murder. Recently an American soldier felt in his pockets to find a youth some cocoanut candy. That youth suddenly drew a small automatic pistol and killed that kindhearted soldier whose highest desire was to be kind.

You can think, handle and use guns until they become part of you. The German nation is insane on the subject of enforcing its will, and mistake this for an accomplishment. Only beneficial knowledge and skill in those things which enable human beings to do more for OTHERS can be evaluated as accomplishments.

To learn to do those things which bring smiles to the faces of the sad, the sorrowing and depressed, that appease the disturbed, that satisfy the hungry, that displace war and brings peace, are in reality accomplishments.

It is said that the water in the North Sea is so cold anyone falling into it cannot live over forty minutes. Is it possible adjoining Germany causes that water to be so cold? No, of course not, but being near that cold icy water always make the Germans so cold-hearted. Our environment does effect our make-up.

I see great improvement in our country. It is capable of producing much more now than it did when I was a boy. Farmers are informed in methods, and workmen of any and all trades are more skilled. This as a general rule is true, but there was once more skilled workmen in some lines. In this country there are not any coopers now to speak of. Once Moore county men lived by that trade. Machinery has taken the place of skill.

Pocketbook Lost By F. F. McPhaul Is Recovered

F. F. McPhaul of the Antioch section near Duffies was playing at "country-boy come to town" Monday when he lost his wallet, containing forty bucks and a flock of valuable papers.

Two Indian girls, Alice Locklear and Douglas Lowery, saw a man pick it up, called Mr. McPhaul, and the pocketbook was recovered. Mr. Flet insists that he'll come to town more often from now on, and not stay away so long as to forget how to act in town.

Hoke High News

During assembly Wednesday morning Mrs. Durham's home room presented one of Lulu W. Gillum's Home Economic plays entitled "Getting Ready for School." The characters were Mildred Sinclair, Alfred Cole, William Clark, Dorothy Calloway, Billie Mae Alfred, and Sara Agnes Guin.

Pupils of Miss Mayme McKeithan's art classes have been making booklets in which they are using pictures of their favorite artists.

Mrs. White's biology pupils are making collections of leaves, wild flowers, insects, stems, and seeds. Later these will be on display in the biology room.

Mrs. Gore's second-year Latin pupils are making a comparative study of warfare in ancient and modern times.

The Rev. W. L. Maness addressed the student body on problems of peace Monday morning during assembly. The Rev. Mr. Maness reviewed the Peace Conference and emphasized the necessity for plans that would create permanent peace.

The honor roll for the past six weeks is as follows:

Mrs. Cameron's room—Ina Mae Benner, Doris Keith, Juanita Long, Edith Morrow, Betty McLean, Barbara Woodhouse, Bonnie Kate Blue, Nancy Lee Cole, Carlene Freeman and Miralyn Johnson.

Mrs. Durham's—Sara A. Guin, Mildred Sinclair, Lana Terrell and Janie Veasey.

Mrs. Fisher's—Joe Gullede, Milton Mann, Jimmy McGowan, Frances Rowling, Mildred Clark and Patricia McNeill.

Miss Gill's—Shirley Blue, Grace Jones, Harriet Jones, Vera King, Judy Klouse, Donnie Lytt, Laura McDougald, Lora Mae McKenzie, Elmira Whitley.

Mrs. Gore's—Eleanor Leach and Elizabeth Parker.

Miss McKeithan's—Duke Marshall, Betty Ella Benner, Marian Lewis, Alice Sotter Matheson, Anne Walters and Mary Ann Smoak.

Mrs. McKeithan's—Kenneth Clark, Anne Gore, Hilda Jordan and Belle Smith.

I notice writers in The Open Forums of the dailies are in for cutting the rations of the German prisoners in the United States. I would not do that. Two wrongs do not make a right.

It is true, not propaganda, that the Germans are starving the prisoners to death. And, the Germans and Japs are not only starving prisoners, but they are killing them—and in numbers.

The enemies of our country have no cause for the hatred they hold against our fellow-citizens. They started, without cause, this war. While they still professed friendship, they stabbed in the back. They have used every form of deception, have taken every unfair advantage. There is nothing too low and unprincipled for them to engage in.

The climate of many Pacific Islands has taken the lives of a number of American soldiers. I read that 8 soldiers died of disease where one died of gun shot wounds. I also read that 97 per cent of the wounded in this war have recovered.

If the present war would only bring about a universal language we would not count it all loss. If we are to be permanently friends with Russia, somebody had better compromise on a language.

Teachers Of Hoke Re-Elected At Group Board Meetings

Miss Anne Buie Resigns As Principal Of Raeford Graded School; Four Teachers Also Resign.

All district school committees except that of Mildouson have had their elections and have reelected all principals and teachers. Miss Margaret McKenzie has been elected principal of the Raeford Graded school to take the place of Miss Annie Buie, who resigned.

Mrs. Emily Cameron, Mrs. Audrey Conk, and Miss Buena Baldwin of the high school faculty have also resigned as has Miss Bobby Mayfield of the graded school. The board accepted all of these resignations with a great deal of regret as all of these teachers have rendered a very valuable service.

A. S. Gaston was reelected as principal of the Upchurch school at the same time.

The lists of the various schools follow:

ANTIOCH—Mrs. Bertha C. Hardesty.

ASHEMONT—R. A. Smoak, principal, Mrs. Evelyn B. Barnes, Miss Mildred F. Womble, and Mrs. Romie F. Smoak.

HOKE HIGH—V. R. White, principal, Mrs. Frances H. McLean, Miss Mayme McKeithan, Miss Blanche Fisher, Miss Lucy G. Gill, Mrs. Alma McKeithan, Mrs. Annie H. Gore, Mrs. Elizabeth B. Durham, Mrs. Ruth L. White, Mrs. Carra M. Wiedemeyer and W. P. Phillips.

RAEFORD GRADED—Miss Margaret F. McKenzie, principal, Miss Thelma Wilson, Miss Abna Ferguson, Miss Mary McPhaul, Miss Louise Fletcher, Miss Marjorie McKay, Miss Lillian Johnson, Mrs. Leone C. Walter and Mrs. Dwight Brown.

ROCKFISH—T. C. Jones, principal, Mrs. Walta T. Bostic, Mrs. Frances B. Capos and Mrs. Treva Koonce.

The Board of Education will meet in regular session on Monday, May 7, at 10:00 A. M.

Farmers Report On Free Spring Grazing

Dairymen, beef cattle men, and hog growers report that temporary grazing crops seeded in early fall, by September 1, with plenty of seed per acre and good applications of fertilizer furnish them with the cheapest feed they produce on the farm.

From Wilson county, for example, come two reports that bring out these points. One is from Jesse D. Proctor of Walstonburg, who has been grazing 30 hogs, 3 head of workstock, and 1 cow on 6 acres. He obtained 61 days of fall grazing or more than enough to pay all expenses of the grazing crop of 4 bushels of small grains and 20 lbs. of rye grass per acre. His spring grazing is "free grazing." Here's what Proctor says, according to County Agent J. O. Anthony of the State College Extension Service:

"Saves three-fourths of the protein supplement for growing hogs and for brood sows it cuts the consumption of concentrates about half." He uses soybeans as a temporary grazing crop in summer.

The other report comes from Haywood Edmundson of Wilson. On April 24 he was grazing 25 cows, 25 calves, and 12 hogs on 55 acres planted at various periods last fall with about 6 bushels of small grains and some peas on each acre. Both men used 300 pounds of complete fertilizer per acre at planting.

When Anthony asked Edmundson about his grazing crops and what he thought of them, the reply was: "I wouldn't have the cows, if I didn't have the grazing crops. To get good grazing, the crop should be planted early and top-dressed."

Widely distributed reports from Wilkes, Gaston, Alamance, Burke, Ashe, Wake, Sampson, Rockingham, and Mecklenburg counties show that farmers are using all kinds of seedling mixtures and that the amount of seed per acre is relatively heavy.

RENT CONTROL

All persons renting or offering for rent, any living quarters whatsoever must register each dwelling unit with rent control office in their rent area. Persons who feel that they are being overcharged for rents may submit complaints to OPA. Complaint forms are available at the local War Price and Rationing board if your area does not have a rent control office.

Rationing rules now require that each car owner write his license number and state on each coupon in his possession as soon as it is issued to him by his local rationing board.

$225 Raised Here For Cancer Work

Hoke County contributed $225 this week towards the work of the Cancer Control Committee, in a drive conducted in Raeford by Walter P. Baker and at Sanatorium by Miss Belle White.

Mr. Baker, county solicitation committee chairman, stated that he received excellent cooperation from citizens, and was especially grateful to Miss White and the Sanatorium personnel for their excellent contribution.

Sugar Rations Cut 25 Percent

Sugar rations have been cut 25 percent, according to an announcement of the Washington office of the Price Administration issued May 1.

A wire to the local OPA office states that a 30-percent cut will apply to canning sugar.

The wire reads: Effective immediately the home canning sugar allotment reduced from 20 pounds per person to 15 pounds per person for 1945 season. Family of eight or more reduced from 160 to 120 pounds per family unit. Board issuances restricted to 70 percent of amount issued during the 1944 season. Signed: R. B. Roberts, district food rationing officer.

The Raeford residential drive will be conducted by the women's clubs of the town, under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Poole. The business section of town will be solicited by a committee composed of Tom Cameron, H. L. Gatlin, Jr., and Tommie Upchurch. The negro campaign is in charge of Stephen Williams, agricultural teacher at Upchurch High school.

Proper Storage Of Eggs Saves Money

In warm weather rapid changes take place inside the egg unless it is stored in a cool, moist place. The quality of an egg cannot be improved after it is laid but the original freshness and quality can be preserved until it is marketed.

T. T. Brown, Extension poultry specialist at State College, suggests that eggs be cooled quickly after they are gathered, kept under proper storage conditions, and then be marketed once or twice a week.

Since fertile eggs deteriorate much more rapidly than do infertile eggs, he also suggests that all cockerels be sold or separated from the laying flock as soon as hatching eggs are no longer needed.

A basement, cellar, insulated room, or a tobacco ordering pit is a good place to store eggs in summer. The room should be kept reasonably moist and well ventilated. Hydrated lime may be sprinkled over the floor to check old development and prevent musty odors. Opening the windows at night and closing them during the day helps to maintain a lower temperature.

In Eastern Carolina Brown suggests that a corner of the feed room be partitioned off and the walls and the roof insulated. Outside windows should be provided so that they may be opened during the night to provide for ventilation.

"Poor storage and handling of eggs during hot weather causes large losses to the farmer and to the consuming public," Brown says. "Under present meat shortage conditions when every possible egg is needed for food, proper storage not only saves money but also valuable food."

16,000 Quota In Hoke County War Loan

Chairman Neill A. McDonald Gives May 14th As Date For County-Wide Drive For "E" Bonds.

Hoke county has been assigned a quota of $206,000 all but $23,000 of which are to be "E" bonds, according to County Seventh War Loan Chairman Neill A. McDonald. The drive for the personal bond sales will begin on May 14th, he stated.

In announcing the quota, Mr. McDonald stated that this will be one of the two drives for bonds to be conducted this year, instead of three as in former war years and a much larger percentage of "E" bonds have been assigned for this reason.

The War Loan period runs from April 7th through July 9th, he explained, but the concentrated drive for the sale of "E" bonds will be conducted during the last two weeks of May. Chairman McDonald and War Finance Chairman Lawrence McNeill have been working since April on the payroll deduction plan which is a principal feature of the 7th War Loan, and which work will continue through the time of the campaign.

The Raeford residential drive will be conducted by the women's clubs of the town, under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Poole. The business section of town will be solicited by a committee composed of Tom Cameron, H. L. Gatlin, Jr., and Tommie Upchurch. The negro campaign is in charge of Stephen Williams, agricultural teacher at Upchurch High school.
