Be wonderful, wouldn't it? Sizzle . . . failf . . . m.m.m.m . . . a a a ah!

"But," you say, "steaks are scarce and expensive. Steaks are rationed.

That's right-and there are good Teasons why.

But is it any less wonderful that you AN still get electric service at the flick of a switch—without shortage or rationing - at low pre-war priceshen vast amounts of electricity have one to war plants?

Our folks have done their war jobs o quietly and well that it's easy to take 'em for granted. We hope you won't-that you'll remember their hard work as you use radio, range, refrigerator, washer, cleaner and the other electric servants that make wartime living so much easier.

What you can take for granted is the fact that your friends in this company will provide plenty of low-priced electricity to run the mechanical marvels in your post-war home.
